INFORMATION AND CREDENTIALS

Direct all requests for further information, interviews and game credentials to:

Baylor Sports Information 150 Bear Run Waco, Texas 76711 (254) 710-2743 (Fax: 254-710-1369).

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credential requests should be directed to the sports information office at least five days prior to home games. Credentials are issued on a priority basis with daily newspapers, national magazines, originating television and radio networks and television tape crews receiving top priority.

All requests should be on official letterhead. Credentials will not be mailed after Tuesday. Press will call is located on the press box elevator.

Credentials are issued to bona fide sports personnel with a legitimate working function. They are non-transferable. Any misrepresentation or unauthorized use subjects the bearer to ejection and prosecution for criminal trespass. Baylor reserves the right to issue or revoke credentials at its discretion.

Please, NO CHILDREN, NO SPOUSES, NO GUESTS. WORKING SPORTS PERSONNEL ONLY will be issued credentials.

Media should make their own arrangements for away game credentials.

Only professional photographers on assignment from a news outlet will be issued photo credentials. NO FREELANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS ARE ADMITTED. Specify whether sideline or photo deck passes are needed. All photographers must wear armbands in plain sight. Armbands are available in the press box prior to kickoff.

NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line surrounding the field and outside the 30-yard lines (team area). Those not complying will be ejected.

PRESS PARKING

Parking spaces are quite limited and will be assigned on the same priority as credentials. The press parking lot is located below the press box entrance on the west side of the stadium.

STATISTICS/SERVICES

Statistics, pregame notes, speed cards and programs will be available in the press box. Quarter, halftime and final stats, a play-by-play and postgame quotes will also be provided. Coach Dave Roberts will come to the press box about 30 minutes after the game for further interviews.

An outstanding meal is served prior to the game and at halftime. Snacks and drinks are available throughout the game.

COMMUNICATIONS

Ample outside telephones are provided by Baylor for writers using computers. Each publication will be billed for use of Baylor lines. The SID office will fax postgame stats to publications.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

After the customary 10-minute cooling off period, Baylor players who have been requested will be brought to the interview room located across the hall from the lockerroom. Coach Dave Roberts will conduct his postgame interviews there first, followed by players.

At other times throughout the week, all interviews with players and coaches must be arranged through the SID office. Please try to give the sports information office at least one day's prior notice on interview requests as players' schedules are quite full with classes, labs, workouts, etc.

Players are available for interviews before practice Monday through Wednesday. Player interviews Monday through Wednesday will be held in the main lobby (second floor) of the Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Complex at Floyd Casey Stadium. The first floor of the athletic complex is off limits to the media.

Telephone interviews will be conducted only during the same time frame as other interviews – Monday through Wednesday before practice. Players' home telephone numbers will not be released.

COVERING PRACTICE

The first 15-30 minutes of practice Monday through Thursday will be open to media. Coach Dave Roberts will be available to the media at the conclusion of every practice. A member of the SID staff will be available to assist with interviews.

SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE

The Baylor SID staff is located in the northeast corner of Floyd Casey Stadium (opposite the press box). Normal office hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

MONDAY PRESS LUNCHEON

Each Monday during the season, Coach Dave Roberts and other Baylor coaches hold a press conference at noon in the Bear Foundation Room (third floor) of the Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Complex at Floyd Casey Stadium. All media representatives are welcome to attend. A light lunch is served.

BIG XII CONFERENCE MEDIA SERVICES

The Big XII Conference headquarters, located in Dallas, will coordinate a conference fax-on-demand system, weekly conference calls with head coaches, satellite television highlight feeds and a variety of other conference media services. Contact the Big XII Conference and information director Bo Carter at (214) 742-1212.

Havlor Radio Network

This season, the Baylor Radio Network will provide the most extensive coverage of Baylor/Big XII football in school history. In addition to live play-by-play of each Baylor Bear football game, there will be extended pregame and postgame programming, daily coaches shows and a weekly call-in show for new head coach Dave Roberts.

The voices you'll hear this season include play-by-play announcer John Morris, color analyst David Hatchett and sideline reporter and postgame host Rick May.

Now in his 11th year as a member of the football broadcast crew, John Morris serves as the play-by-play "Voice of the Bears." This is his third year since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon. Morris is Baylor's director of broadcasting, who also hosts the daily coaches shows, the Tuesday night "Dave Roberts Call-in Show" and the "Dave Roberts TV Show."

In his third year as color analyst on the Baylor Radio Network is veteran sportscaster David Hatchett. The popular afternoon sports anchor on Dallas/Ft. Worth affiliate WBAP-AM is in his 13th year with the station and has handled a number of college football and basketball assignments during that time.

Joining the Baylor radio crew this season as the on-field reporter is Rick May, the program director and morning show co-host on flagship station KKTK-AM, "The Ticket," in Waco. The former public address announcer at Baylor events also will field calls on the "5th Quarter" postgame call-in show.

Jerry Clemmons returns for his 27th year as gameday producer of Baylor Bear football. Tommy Tucker is also back for his 27th season keeping statistics, and the multi-talented Craig Harper continues his engineering artistry for an 11th season.

Behind the scenes, Brian Tarter heads up local and affiliate sales, while John Fletcher handles network sales and affiliate procurement, all under the direction of Baylor's director of marketing, Dr. Darryl Lehnus. Fans out of range of one of the stations on the Baylor Radio Network can listen to every game live worldwide on the internet at http://www.audionet.com/schools. Fans can also dial in to "Teamline" and charge the call to a credit card to listen to every game at 1-800-846-4700. The Baylor access code is 5801, and the Baylor Athletic Department receives a percentage of revenue from each call.

Sports Information Start

Maxey Parrish Sports Public Affairs Director

Maxey Parrish is in his 18th year with the Baylor athletic department. He joined the staff in 1980 as assistant SID and became SID in 1982. In 1993 he was named sports public affairs director.

Parrish, 40, grew up in Waco watching Baylor athletic events. While attending Baylor he worked as a student assistant in the sports information office and ran on the Bear cross country and track teams.

After receiving a B.A. in journalism in 1978, Parrish spent two years as assistant SID at SMU and had a brief stint as SID at Centenary College.

Parrish has won several publication awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America. In 1986, he won the Press Box Merit Award from the Football Writers Association of America. In 1991, he was presented the Drake Relays Media Award.

During his career, Parrish has worked in media relations at such events as the Cotton Bowl Classic, the NCAA Final Four and NCAA national championships in track, tennis and swimming as well as several events sponsored by the United States Olympic Committee.

In 1986, 1989, 1990 and 1993, he worked at the U.S. Olympic Festival. In 1987, he worked at the World University Games in Czechoslovakia, and in 1992 and 1996 he was a press officer for the U.S. Olympic Team in Barcelona and Atlanta.

He has served on CoSIDA's NCAA Legislation and Olympic Liaison committees and is currently second vice president of the organization. He has also worked on the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce's Big 12 Task Force and Sports and Recreation Committee and the Waco/Baylor Advisory Council.

Parrish, who finished an M.S. Ed. in sports administration in 1993, is married to the former Susanne Holland of Uvalde, who earned both a B.A. and M.S. Ed. at Baylor. They have two daughters, Annabeth and Mary Katherine.

Julie Bennett

Assistant Sports Information Director

Julie Bennett is in her fifth year with the Baylor sports information office, working in a position that is primarily responsible for women's basketball and softball.

She worked as a press officer at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, the 1990 Goodwill Games in Seattle, the 1994 U.S. Olympic Festival in St. Louis and the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

At Hawaii, she directed press operations for the NCAA women's volleyball national championships. She has also worked at numerous other NCAA and conference events.

A native of California, Bennett has a B.A. in physical education from Fresno State and an M.S. in physical education from Central Missouri State.

She is married to retired Air Force Lt. Col. Bruce Bennett and has four daughters: Jennifer Morrison, Heather Kearney, Erin (a Baylor senior) and Megan Bennett (an MCC sophomore); and six grandchildren.

Brian McCallum

Assistant Sports Information Director

Brian McCallum is in his second year back and third year overall in the Baylor athletic department. He returned to the university in August of 1996.

McCallum is a veteran of the sports information field, also having worked at Lamar and Louisiana Tech universities. A 1988 graduate of Louisiana Tech with a B.S. in journalism, he is the basketball contact for Baylor and also works with football.

McCallum, who was a student assistant, graduate assistant and assistant at Louisiana Tech from 1985-1990, first moved to Texas to work at Lamar from 1990-93, publicizing 12 sports and assisting with two others. He came to Baylor in April of 1993, working with football, track and field, cross country and editing the football game program.

He left Baylor in March of 1994 to return to his alma mater as sports information director. As SID at Tech, McCallum supervised publicity for 14 sports, including the nationally-prominent Lady Techsters basketball program. That included helping a Lady Techster earn Kodak All-America status for the first time in four years.

McCallum has also had two stints with the Shreveport Captains, the AA affiliate of the San Francisco Giants baseball team, and he worked at The (Shreveport) Times.

In addition to serving as host and working numerous conference championships and NCAA playoffs, McCallum has worked seven NCAA championships: the Final Four, three Women's Final Fours, indoor and outdoor track and field and women's golf.

McCallum is a native of Shreveport, La.

Jason Archinal

Assistant Sports Information Director

Jason Archinal is in his second year with the Baylor athletic department. He is a 1992 graduate of Texas Tech University and at Baylor is responsible for the women's volleyball team, the baseball team and the basketball gameday program.

While working on his M.S. in sports administration (1994-96), Archinal was a graduate assistant in the sports information office at Tech. His duties there included the men's and women's tennis team and the baseball team. He also assisted with football, basketball and volleyball.

After a year and a half with Tech, Archinal accepted an internship with the U.S. Olympic Committee in Colorado Springs. His responsibilities included male and female athlete of the month, a pre-Olympic media guide, the Olympic media guide and sport by sport monthly updates. Archinal then worked as a press officer at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta, assisting with men's and women's basketball, gymnastics, volleyball and track and field.

A native of West Texas, Archinal was born in Odessa and graduated from Monterey High School in Lubbock. He has an identical twin brother along with three other brothers and two sisters.

Football Outlook

1997 Baylor Football Outlook by Dave Campbell Baylor Bear Insider Report Editor-in-Chief

Suppose you are the quarterback of Coach Dave Roberts' 1997 Baylor Bears and the Bear defense has just forced the other team to punt. You group your team in the huddle, call the play, break the huddle, take the team to the line, check the defensive front, call the blocking scheme, call the protection, check for the blitz, instruct the tight end to block or run a pass route (depending on the down and distance), get the ball snapped, feel the coverage at the time of the snap and then throw to the correct receiver (based on coverage) or if there's a blitz, throw a hot route to the tight end.

And all that happens within a split second while 21 huge bodies fly around, all of which might help explain why Baylor quarterbacks Jeff Watson and Jermaine Alfred received so much attention last spring and will receive even more as they prepare to open in Waco against powerful Miami on August 30. All spring long, everybody following Baylor's football fortunes asked, "How are the quarterbacks picking up the new system?"

"At the start of spring work, we were throwing to the wrong receivers, the receivers were running the wrong routes, the quarterbacks didn't have a clue," Roberts said at the conclusion of spring drills.

But about the 14th day of the spring work, some things began to click for senior and probable starter Jeff Watson.

"And by the 15th day (the final day of the spring work), there was some real understanding," said Roberts. Based on that it's probably safe to say that Jeff Watson is going to be Baylor's man taking the snaps when Miami comes to town. And while Watson may not be the fastest, the strongest or the best pro prospect, he is a competitor. He proved it in three years as a starter and he proved it to Dave Roberts.

"Jeff's going to find a way. He has a good arm, not great, but he's such a competitor. He's not the most gifted, it's always a struggle for him, but he finds a way. When we started last spring, we put Jermaine first. He has the better arm, he's bigger. But Jeff went to work and came up. Jeff has an awareness about him, the good experience, and he has an awareness in the pocket. For us, quarterback is not the arm but the decision making; it's where to go with the ball. Jermaine often throws to the wrong people. You have to protect the football," explained Roberts.

"That's the important thing for a quarterback. It's not the arm, it's not the size, it's 'Where do I go with the ball?' It's the decision making under pressure. With this offense, our quarterback has to be big-time smart. And Jeff is very intelligent.

"Our quarterbacks can make a lot of progress, and they want to. They are going to have a very busy summer on their own and fall camp is going to be very, very important. Big. Big. They'll figure it out."

The fact that he said "they" means he is counting on Alfred to come by leaps and bounds this summer, too.

And then there is Odell James, 6-4, 210, the amazing talent who was being so highly touted at this time a year ago after signing with Baylor, but the same guy who has yet to take a snap in a game. So much potential — but thus far, there it stops.

Rehabbing from extensive knee surgery performed last

November, James spent the spring in non-contact work while proving to Roberts that, even throwing flat-footed, he has an arm that can make pro scouts drool. Longtime Baylor watchers will tell you the Bears haven't signed a quarterback with an Odell James-type arm since Cody Carlson (1982) first checked into camp.

"No question, Odell can have a tremendous impact on this team," Baylor's new coach said. "But he hasn't been out there under the pressure. So we just don't know. I really like his attitude. He has an excellent attitude. He seems to be picking it (the mental part) up well enough. He's a good worker. We'll see."

If all goes according to plan, Odell will shed his knee brace sometime this summer and get in top physical condition while continuing to strengthen the knee and learn the offense. By the time two-a-days arrive, the coaches hope he will be ready to begin.

But after his long absence from live, full-speed competition (some 22 months), it is unrealistic, they admit, to think that James can become an overnight star. Maybe by mid-season, maybe next season, we will start seeing the real Odell James.

THE TAILBACKS, FULLBACKS

On the plus side for Roberts is the fact that he has impressive running skills available. Both at tailback and fullback, the 1997 Bruins come fully armed. Those could be the two strongest positions on the team.

Ask Roberts if No. 1 tailback Jerod Douglas, a two-year starter, could play for Notre Dame and he replies: "Jerod could play for anybody. I really think he's special. Good experience, good hands, good vision, great speed, good cutting ability. And I think he's picked up some size; he's about 180 now."

Many associated with the program say Douglas is the best player on this year's Baylor football team. In this new wideopen offense, with his running and catching skills, Jerod stands ready to be not only an impact player on the Baylor scene but also the Big 12 scene. It will be a major surprise if he is not.

When Roberts says, "I feel good about tailback," Douglas is the foremost reason.

But there are others. Blue-chip recruit Darrell Bush, a redshirt last fall as a freshman, started the spring behind sophomore letterman Elijah Burkins. He finished ahead of him. But it figures to stay a close race. "Bush had a good spring. He came on at the end," said Roberts. "He carried the ball tough, blocked well. He was much improved from the start to the end of the spring work.

"Burkins has a little more wiggle to him, more elusiveness.

He's struggled some, but he can be a good player."

The fullback position looks good because of twin comebacks. Anthony Overstreet, suspended part of last season, returned at the start of the spring semester as a more determined, more focused senior. And sophomore Robert Jackson, after redshirting last fall, returned in January after quitting the squad in December. He worked his way back after keeping the kind of disciplined schedule and doing the hard work, both on the field and in the classroom, that Roberts asked him to do.

"Overstreet is tough, tough. And he's trying to do things within the system," Roberts said.

"He has excellent hands, and he blocks well. He's not big enough (at 6-1, 221) to be a prototype fullback but I like him. He really did some good things this spring. He really responded.

"Now I'm very proud of Robert Jackson. He came back, started doing the things we wanted him to do, working hard, laughing on the field. He's really turned himself around. Jackson will be a good player. And he's a big fullback (5-10, 241).

The question is, where does Dexter Ford fit in all this? Ford did not go through contact work last spring after undergoing offseason shoulder surgery. Roberts can't answer that question at the moment. He just assures you Dexter Ford is going to fit in someplace, perhaps at one of the receiver positions.

"Dexter's smart, and we know he's fast. He has excellent hands. There's gotta be a place on the field for Dexter Ford. It could be at tailback, it could be at fullback, it could be at the Z (flanker) position," said Roberts. "We're very much counting on him."

WIDEOUTS, TIGHT END

Baylor wide receivers are designated as "X" (split end) and "Z" (flanker) in Roberts' offense. And in his pro-type scheme, both figure to be busy and much in the spotlight.

The top-ranking split end (X) at the end of spring training was the Bear who perhaps made the greatest strides in the final days of practice - junior Derrius Thompson (6-2, 216).

"Excellent height, very good hands, very good speed," analyzed Roberts. "Midway through the spring, we were disappointed in Derrius. We thought he would bloom big. Then right at the end he did what we expected. He has a long way to go, a long way to go, but he has lots of ability. He gave us encouragement.

"Morris Anderson is also there. Morris is a poor blocker. He needs to become more physical; he needs to get bigger and stronger. But he played a little hurt, and I was encouraged with that. He does need to improve."

Also categorized for needing to improve his blocking was senior Gerald Patterson (6-1, 215), who tailed off after a strong start. "I can't see putting a receiver in there who won't block. That's nonsense," said Roberts, who could have been talking about Anderson or Patterson.

Certainly he was not talking about Nikia Codie, a talented junior and former free safety who may have found a home at the Z position. Codie has speed, size (6-3, 203), good hands. "Codie was one of our most consistent blockers and he caught the ball well. He might have been the best one at the end of the spring," said the coach.

"Chris Cagnolatti is probably our best blocker, but he's only 150. He has good speed and good hands; he's just not very big."

Although Mark Cogdill spent the spring playing the outfield for Steve Smith's baseball Bears, Roberts does not try to hide his enthusiasm for the fleet-footed Cypress Creek sophomore, a late-season sensation as a wideout for the Bears last fall.

"Cogdill will be a factor," promises Roberts. The addition of Cogdill and the potential move of Dexter Ford could significantly strengthen the receiver positions.

The tight ends? "Bradley Domel, a returning two-year starter, is tough, not very big, not real fast, but he has great intensity. He plays with pain. I like his toughness," said Roberts, lamenting only that Domel is 6-3, 230 rather than 6-4, 245 or 250.

The other prominent tight end candidate is junior Chad Chmelar (6-3, 228), "also way undersized. He really has to work to get stronger. But he has excellent hands," said Roberts, adding, "Those are the only two we have. If one of them gets hurt, we'll have to find us a guard to put there."

THE OFFENSIVE LINE

Finding a spare guard might take some doing. Finding a spare anything in the offensive front might take some doing.

Former tight end Clifford Isom (6-4, 257) now backs up quick tackle David Davis, the best offensive lineman on the team. When the coaches aren't talking about Jerod Douglas being their best football player, they're speaking of David Davis (6-4, 319) in those terms.

Indeed, Davis is so accomplished that Roberts keeps trying to find a way to move him to guard. He hasn't succeeded as yet.

"Davis is a good one wherever he plays," said the coach, speaking of the lineman who had to miss all of 1996 after laming a knee in a summer auto accident. "He's gotten his weight down from 330, he has a great attitude, he has a great work ethic, he's just exactly what Baylor stands for. When he trims up a little more he can really be a good one. And what I like about him, he's one of the best team players I've ever been around.

"Davis is a great young man, and he's the type that you want to have a great year. He's our best offensive lineman, he and Michael Johnson."

Johnson, a 6-3, 305-pound senior and three-year starter, is ticketed for strongside guard where he runs ahead of sophomore Brian Sutton. Another young prize, sophomore Toby Summers, is ranked No. 2 both at a guard and center, which means he is going to see his full quota of action. "Summers is a real warrior," explains Roberts.

At 6-1, 256, Summers is probably at least a year away from stardom. Meanwhile, Michael Johnson's time has come.

"Michael has great feet, just excellent feet," said Roberts.

"He's down from 325 to about 305 but he needs to get under 300. He has good techniques. He's probably the best technician out there.

"Kelvin Garmon (6-2, 306) is not real tall but he has excellent toughness, excellent feet," Roberts said of the starter at quick guard. "He has a lot of ability. He could wind up being our best lineman some day."

If Garmon at 6-2 is not real tall, strongside tackle Derrick Fletcher, at 6-6 and 338, is plenty tall. But he's not experienced at the position at all. Moving the Bears' co-starter at nose tackle on defense last year to the offensive line this spring was Roberts' most spotlighted player shift.

"Derrick did a nice job but he has a long way to go. He's making big strides. He still needs to lose another 10 to 12 pounds (at one time he was at 370). He's not there yet by any means. But he's working hard and has a great attitude," reported Roberts.

The offensive line's other Fletcher, Danny, is the starter at center. He's a 6-3, 268-pound senior. "Danny is not real big. He and Toby (Summers) are both undersized, but they're tough kids. They find a way. I just love them to death. Those two and David Davis are pretty special," said Roberts.

Of the other offensive linemen expected to contribute, guard Brian Sutton, "had a pretty decent spring; he has a good work ethic," and Larry McRae and Carlos Rocha "both need to get their strength level up."

Meanwhile, a decision is still awaited where junior Anthony Williams is concerned. Hailed at one time last season as perhaps the offensive line's best player, a starter at both center and guard, Williams (6-3, 276) was in limbo at the end of spring drills, not off the team but not really on it either.

"Anthony's got the talent; he can help us. But he has to want to be here. He has to want to be a team player. I've told him, 'If you miss more than three classes this summer, if you miss a workout in the weight room or if I even see you frown, you're out of here.' That's what I told Robert Jackson and he responded great. It's what I told Leonard Hill (linebacker). Now Jackson and Hill have turned themselves around; they're totally different people. So we'll have to wait and see about Anthony Williams."

Williams' experience, talent and versatility could mean much to the Bears' 1997 offensive line – if he convinces Roberts he's ready to get with the program.

SUMMING UP THE OFFENSE

In Roberts' words, looking at the whole offense, "We feel comfortable with our tailbacks and fullbacks. We think our receivers really have to make tremendous strides. And in the offensive line, we have only six - at best, eight - so we better stay healthy."

But with some luck on injuries, this could be the best offensive line the Bears have had in a while. With first-class running backs, a strong-willed and experienced leader at quarterback, and talented wideouts who should get better and better, this could be an interesting, entertaining and dangerous offense, one capable of producing points and yards, given the time to develop.

Roberts could have added that this is a complex offense, not learned in a day. The Bears really have just been introduced to it. "We haven't put in the whole package by any means," Roberts noted. It's a good guess that the Bears will need at least the month of September to start getting it down.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE

"We're very undersized, so we're really going to have to compensate," analyzed Roberts. "You want your defensive ends to be 270. Ours are going to range from 225 to Glenn Coy at 256. We'll have to use our speed and quickness. I don't know, big tackles may just engulf our ends. We'll have to move around a lot, slant and stunt.

"We might be able to hold pretty well against a finesse team but not a power team, a team that just pounds you. Michigan (Baylor's opponent in Ann Arbor on Sept. 20) is a pounding team. I think A&M (at College Station on Nov. 8) is going to be a pounding team. So our first goal is to try to get bigger and stronger this summer."

Bear defensive coordinator Ty Smith, the head man on a defense at Purdue last season, will assure you that Big 10 line starters who can't lift 400 pounds are few and far between. Baylor doesn't have a wealth of such linemen.

"But I like these kids. They work. They're tough. They want to. They're just a little undersized," declared Roberts.

Talking to Roberts and the Bears' defensive coaches, one gets the idea that few positions are really nailed down. Those who work hardest in the weight room this summer are likely to forge ahead in two-a-days.

But at the end of the spring, Roberts had Justin Snow and Charles Foster, in that order, at right defensive end; and Glenn Coy and Clifton Rubin at left end, with redshirt freshman Eric Clay listed as No. 3 at both ends.

At the tackles, Chris Sampy, a pleasant surprise after being switched from the offensive line, was ranked ahead of redshirt freshman Ellis Cotton on the right side; and Dwight Johnson was No. 1 over ex-fullback James Calvin on the left side.

"Coy's the one who could stand in there a little better against a power team. He's tough and he has a little size," Roberts said.

"In certain situations, Rubin can be outstanding. He has tremendous quickness. He can really come off the edge (on a pass rush). He's our best pass rusher. Snow is just 233 but at 250 he could be very, very good. Snow's a real warrior. And Foster is willing enough and he moves well.

"At the tackles, Sampy is 270 and he's tough, tough, tough. I've really been pleased with his toughness.

"Dwight Jonnson (6-4, 270) needs to get bigger but he had a good spring. He's a natural end that we've had to move inside. He has a lot of athletic ability. Dwight's a very special person - anything to help the team."

Roberts would like to move Cotton to the offensive line; he believes the big Sherman product would be more effective there. But he can't afford to give him up on defense. "He's a good athlete," said Roberts. "He's too big. He was at 324 and he needs to be under 300 to be effective. James Calvin is a great person and a tough kid. He's just not real big."

THE LINEBACKERS

To hear the coaches tell it, the situation may be a bit better at linebacker - but not much. The refrain is the same: a general lack of size. Too many weakside linebacker types and not enough big, brawny, guys who can run, they say. At the end of spring drills, they were lining them up like this:

Middle linebacker: Senior Jody Littleton and redshirt freshman Kris Micheaux.

Weakside linebacker: Junior Kenyada Parker, Jason Jackson and Leonard Hill.

Strongside Linebacker: Junior Clarence Cruse, Cornelius Banks and McKinley Bowie. And talented sophomore Don Arroyo, who missed all of the spring work with a hamstring strain, is sure to figure in there somewhere.

Bowie, widely sought as a recruit, is the biggest at 6-2 and 238. He made a tremendous impression during his first two-aday session last year, but he had to miss all of last season because of a broken foot.

"Bowie is the biggest and probably the farthest away. But he's going to be a good one in time," said Roberts. "Arroyo is about 228 right now. He needs to be 240. He could be a good one, too. Cruse is 220, a tough kid who needs to get bigger. Banks is only 215 or so.

"So nobody has any bulk on them. We've got to get all of them to eating. They all have athletic ability. But they're not extremely fast - 4.8, 4.9 guys.

"I like Littleton's attitude. He's a worker. Micheaux is starting to look the part. I see him as the kind of player you want. Parker is 208, 210. He's tough but he needs to add at least 10 pounds. Jackson's 212 or thereabouts, and I want him at 225. Leonard Hill's gone from 195 to 218, and he's become a delight. Keep an eye on Leonard Hill.

"Overall, this is just an undersized crew and we've got to go to work. We can really make tremendous strides this summer."

THE SECONDARY

Roberts is often lavish in his praise of top cornerbacks senior Joe Manor (left side) and sophomore Robert Neal. They finished the spring as the starters, with junior Curtis Henderson ranked No. 1 at free safety ahead of redshirt freshman Darwin Scott, and soph Sean Armistead out in front of fellow soph Rodney Smith at strong safety.

It's a group that has much to prove. Still, Roberts looks on the bright side. "I really like Joe Manor," he said. "He's married, two kids, he was out of school last year and now he's come back and put it all together. He's a good player with good speed, and he's working hard to become a good leader.

"Robert Neal has a lot of ability, plus he's a good student, good speed, and he believes he can be good.

"I like Curtis Henderson, too. He's a good leader and a tough person, a special person. He's exactly what Baylor needs to recruit. He's a lot like Robert Neal.

"Sean Armistead is an ex-cornerback that we moved to strong safety. He's not real fast but he seems to be the best one we have there." In looking for backup help at the corners, they'll look first to Matt Anderson ("good work ethic and he came on well toward the end of spring") and former wideout Daniel Wilturner, a redshirt freshman. "I'm really high on Wilturner," said Roberts. "He'll be a good corner one of these days. He has very good speed."

At the backup safety spots, Scott is judged to be a good athlete who is a fine student in the classroom, so he also has the smarts. As for former Waco University star quarterback Rodney Smith, "Rodney's a good athlete who has gotten too big. He's up to around 225. He needs to be about 207. He's a good athlete."

The secondary is one area where Roberts believes several of February's signees might help quickly. The prospects he mentions first: Samir Al-Amin (6-2, 190) from Garland Lakeview, Gary Baxter (6-2, 181) from Tyler John Tyler and Kyle Staudt (6-2, 195) from Fredricksburg.

And in the offensive line, Luke Nichols (6-5, 290) from Beaumont Kelly may have to be rushed into action. But Roberts hopes not. "I'd really like to redshirt all these guys," he said.

THE KICKING GAME

Some aspects of the Bear kicking game have been solid, even spectacular, in the past several years, but seldom has the entire package been reliable.

Roberts hopes to change that this coming season with a package that will feature Oregon State transfer (but Orange, Texas, product) Matt Bryant handling the field goals, and extra points and Kyle Atteberry doing the punting.

"And it's still up in the air about who we'll use on kickoffs. It will be one of those two," he said.

"Bryant had a real good camp until the very last day when he missed an extra point. You just can't do that. He has the leg to kick a 50- or 55-yard field goal. I just want him to be consistent from 35 yards.

"At the very end, I felt very comfortable with Atteberry as our punter. He gets it off in a hurry and he's a tremendous person."

Although Jody Littleton moved into the linebacker equation in a major way, Roberts plans for him still do the deep snapping (in two years he has yet to produce a bad snap), and Justin Snow proved he can serve as a reliable backup.

ROBERTS SUMS IT UP

Here is the way Baylor's new head coach, full of enthusiasm and energy, summed up the spring work:

"What I'm most interested in right now is getting them to play hard and to cut down on missed assignments. I think we made progress. They're beginning to play harder. We need to be a tougher team, a more physical team. Are we there yet? No, no, not at all. We're not close. We have far too many turnovers. We have to get stronger. We have a lot of areas we need to work on

"But I think we've made real progress on our discipline, the attitude's good, and we're working hard. How good we want to be next fall depends on how hard we want to work this summer, and how together we want to be."

1997 Football Media Guide

Dave Roberts, a highly successful head coach, assistant coach and recruiter, is in his first year as Baylor University's 22nd head football coach.

DAVE ROBERTS QUICK FACTS

NAME: DAVID THOMAS ROBERTS

FAMILY: WIFE, PENNIE, SON DAVID (22), A STUDENT AT WESTERN KENTUCKY; DAUGHTER ALLISON, (20) A STUDENT AT NOTRE DAME.

EDUCATION: BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN EDUCATION, WESTERN CAROLINA 1969; MASTER OF ADMINISTRATION 1971.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: LINEBACKER AT WESTERN CAROLINA, 1965-69

In the short time Roberts has been at the Baylor helm he has hired a veteran staff of assistants, put together a remarkable recruiting class, placed the highest priority on superior academic performance, reemphasized the off-season program and taken a comprehensive tour of Texas, addressing thousands of Baylor faithful.

Through it all Roberts has time and again lived up to the reputation that preceded him: that of a tireless worker whose infectious enthusiasm for the game of football makes believers of everyone he meets. Work days exceeding 16 hours in length are more common than not for Roberts. But far from being a dogged workaholic, Roberts is a man who probably wakes up every morning simply thrilled to be a football coach.

"Football should be fun," Roberts says energetically. "It should be fun to coach, fun to play and fun to watch. I like to throw the football on offense. Defensively, we'll be attacking. The bottom line is you have to out-execute people to win. We won't be a finesse team."

Roberts loves to coach football, and he loves the school whose program he heads. "Baylor is a special place. It's got so many similarities to Notre Dame (from whence Roberts came), being a private Christian school. Both places are spiritual.

"I have a plan for Baylor," he continues. "That plan includes a high graduation rate, I'd like to be No. 1 in the nation in graduating our players. I want to work closely with the faculty. I've always felt the faculty and athletics need to be together. We're not here and they're not there. We need to be together.

"I want to see the students involved. We have to get them cranked up and going to win in this league. We want to be involved in the community so they can relate to these guys beyond their being just a guy under a helmet."

More than anything Roberts wants to win. "I don't know any football coach who doesn't want to win. That's what they brought me here to do and that's the plan."

Roberts comes to Baylor with a 10-year head coaching record of 63-50-3. He has directed passing-oriented offensive attacks ranked among the nation's best. And he has been ranked as one of the nation's top recruiters several times. Through his career, Roberts has more than a dozen years coaching experience at private colleges and universities with outstanding academic programs.

Roberts comes to Baylor from Notre Dame, where he spent the last three years as offensive coordinator under former head coach Lou Holtz. He recently turned down the opportunity to remain at Notre Dame with new head coach Bob Davie. While Roberts was at Notre Dame, the Irish were ranked in the top 10 nationally and appeared in the Fiesta and Orange Bowls.

Roberts installed an exciting passing attack that made Notre Dame one of the nation's most potent offensive squads. In both 1994 and '95 Roberts was rated as the "No. 1 Recruiter in America" by Football Prep Report Magazine.

From 1989-93 Roberts was the head coach at Northeast Louisiana University, compiling a record of 38-19-2. His teams went to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs three of his last four years. His squad won the Southland Conference title in 1990. In 1992 Northeast won the Southland again with a 7-0 record (10-3 overall) as Roberts was named Conference and National Coach of the Year. His 1993 team went 9-3 and averaged 472.8 yards and 39.2 points per game.

From 1984-88 Roberts served as head coach at Western Kentucky. Taking over at a school that was considering dropping football, he compiled a record of 26-30-1. His last two teams went 7-4 and 9-4 and were nationally ranked.

In 1986 Sports Illustrated rated Roberts as one of the top five recruiters in the country along with Michigan's Bo Schembechler, UCLA's Terry Donahue, Oklahoma's Barry Switzer and Penn State's Joe Paterno.

From 1979-83 Roberts worked on a Vanderbilt staff that took a struggling program and led it to a bowl game. He was an assistant at Davidson from 1973-78 and at Eastern Kentucky in 1972. He began his coaching career as a high school assistant at McCormick (S.C.) High school from 1970-71. Roberts played high school football at Hampton High in Greenville, S.C. An all-state honoree, he went on to be a standout linebacker at Western Carolina. He earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1969 and master's in education in 1971.

Roberts and his wife, Pennie, have two children, David, a student at Western Kentucky, and Allison, a student at Notre Dame.

Mike Cassity Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Secondary Kentucky, 1976 First year at Baylor

Defensive secondary coach Mike Cassity comes to Baylor from the University of Wisconsin. Cassity spent two seasons at Wisconsin, handling the Badger secondary. Previously, he was the defensive coordinator at Cincinnati (1994), Georgia Tech (1992-93), East Carolina (1990-91), Northeast Louisiana (1989) and Western Kentucky (1983-88).

He worked under head coach Dave Roberts at both Western Kentucky and Northeast Louisiana.

A native of Fort Campbell, Ky., Cassity is a 1976 graduate of the University of Kentucky, where he began his college coaching career as an assistant from 1979-81. He spent 1982 as an assistant at Morehead State. He got into coaching at Tilghman High School in Paducah, KY., where he served from 1976-79.

Cassity has enjoyed tremendous success throughout his career. He was defensive coordinator for an emerging East Carolina program in 1991 when the Pirates went 11-1 and won the Peach Bowl. That year, he was selected to one publication's national coaching staff of the year.

His defenses at Western Kentucky were twice ranked among the top 10 in the nation in total defense. He has coached several players who went on to the National Football League, including Robert Jones, an all-pro linebacker who played for the Dallas Cowboys.

Cassity lettered three years at the University of Kentucky in football, playing strong safety, and won the 110% Kiwanis Award. He also lettered three years in wrestling (Southeastern Conference runner-up at 190 pounds). He has three children, Brooke, 11, Hunter, 8, and Skyler, 3.

Darryl Drake Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Western Kentucky, 1979 First year at Baylor

Daryl Drake, who will serve as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, comes to Baylor from the University of Georgia where he coached wide receivers from 1992-96. In each of his first three seasons at Georgia he coached the leading receiver in the Southeastern Conference.

The Bulldog passing record book was rewritten during Drake's tenure at UGA. Andre Hastings set a single season record with 52 catches for 860 yards in 1992 and the next season Brice Hunter broke two of those with 76 catches for 970 yards and nine TDs.

Drake coached at Western Kentucky from 1983-91. He spent two seasons (1983-84) as a graduate assistant, four (1985-88) as wide receivers coach, two (1989-90) as secondary coach and one (1991) as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

"Darryl is known for his awesome offensive football mind," Roberts said. "He's a great teacher, a great man and he has a great family. He'll be a real asset to our program."

Drake played wide receiver at Western Kentucky from 1975-78. The Louisville, Ky. native was all-state in football and all-American in track and basketball at Flaget HS. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, 17, Felisha, 15, and Marian, 11.

Assistant Coaciles

Lee Fobbs Running BacksGrambling State, 1973

First year at Baylor

Veteran coach Lee Fobbs, most recently from the University of Minnesota, has been tabbed to coach the Bear running backs. Fobbs, 47, coached outside linebackers for the Golden Gophers in 1996 after spending the 1995 season at Southern Mississippi where he worked primarily with offensive tackles and tight ends. Prior to that, he coached defensive ends at Louisiana State from 1994-95, wide receivers at Tulane from 1991-94 and the defensive line at Northeast Louisiana from 1989-91.

Fobbs joined the college coaching ranks after a highly successful stint as a high school coach. From 1985-89, he was the head football coach and athletic director at Carroll High School in Monroe, La. In 1987 his squad reached the state semifinals. The following year his team went to the state quarterfinals. From 1975-85 he was the offensive coordinator at Wossman High School in Monroe, La., where he also served at head track coach.

Fobbs graduated from Grambling State University in 1973 with a health and physical education degree. He earned All-SWAC and All-American honors as a senior for legendary coach Eddie Robinson.

An eighth-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills, Fobbs played professionally for the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders and Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He also played for the Detroit Wheels and Birmingham Stallions on the United States Football League.

After his pro career, Fobbs went back to Grambling where he was a graduate assistant under Robinson in 1975. He earned a master's degree in sports administration at Grambling in 1976.

Fobbs and his wife, Shelia, have three children: Broderick, 22, Jamaal, 19, and Chelsea, five. Shelia just completed a doctorate degree at the University of Kentucky, Broderick will graduate from Grambling in May and Jamaal is a redshirt freshman running back at Oklahoma State.

Jim Holland Defensive Tackles Appalachian State, 1971 First year at Baylor

Jim Holland comes to Baylor from Northeast Louisiana and will coach the Bear defensive linemen.

Holland, 47, coached at Northeast Louisiana from 1989-96. He was the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach from 1989-93. In '94 he coached linebackers and in 1995 he took over the reins of the defense again as coordinator while continuing to coach linebackers. In 1996, he coached the defensive front.

While at Northeast he led several defenses ranked among the nation's best. In 1990 the Indians were ranked 16th, in '91 they were 15th, in '92 they were 18th and in '93 they were 23rd. Teams he helped coach won Southland Conference titles in 1990 and '92 and reached the NCAA playoffs in 1990, '92 and '93.

From 1987-88 Holland coached linebackers and served as recruiting coordinator at Western Kentucky. Both years his teams were nationally ranked and rated among the country's best on defense while reaching the NCAA playoffs.

Holland was the Delta State defensive coordinator from 1984-86, the Wofford College line-backer coach in 1983 and the East Carolina defensive ends coach from 1980-82.

Holland was the head coach at Garinger High School (NC) from 1976-79 and was a part-time coach at Clemson from 1974-75 (handling noseguards). He was the defensive coordinator at Garinger in 1973 and at Erwin High School (NC) from 1971-72.

Holland is a 1971 graduate of Appalachian State with a B.S. in political science. He has a master of education degree from Clemson (1975).

Holland played high school football, baseball and basketball at Asheville (N.C.) High School. He played quarterback and defensive end at Appalachian State University. He and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Patrick, 13, and Jay, 10.

Robert James

Tight Ends McMurry, 1961 Fifteenth year at Baylor

Robert James, who will be in his 15th season at Baylor this year, will be in charge of the Bear tight ends. James joined the Baylor staff in July 1983 as defensive ends coach. While working in that capacity, he coached four players to all-conference honors. James came to Baylor after leading Gainesville to three consecutive state playoff appearances. Prior to that, he held head coaching positions at Lamesa and San Antonio MacArthur.

Overall, James put together a record of 103-37-4 as a high school head coach. James lettered three years in football and two in track at Snyder High School. He graduated from Snyder in 1957 after earning all-district honors for Coach John Conley, who went on to become the athletic director at Texas Tech. He then went to McMurry where he earned three letters playing for Grant Teaff. Before graduating in 1961, James earned all-Texas honors as an offensive and defensive tackle.

James started his coaching career at Abilene's Jefferson Junior High in 1961. Following that, he was an assistant at Winters in 1962 and '63 and Temple in 1964.

He took his first head job at Lamesa in 1965 and remained there until 1974. In 1972 James guided the Golden Tornadoes to a district title. The following year, his squad reached the Class AAA state semifinals.

He spent the 1975-77 seasons at San Antonio MacArthur. The Brahmas were regional finalists in 1975. That same year, James served on the board of directors of the Texas High School Coaches Association. James entered the college ranks in 1978 at New Mexico. He spent two seasons coaching the offensive and defensive lines before taking over the reins at Gainesville in 1980. He made three playoff appearances there before Teaff offered him a position at Baylor prior to the 1983 season.

James earned a master's in education from Trinity in 1976. He is married to the former Linda Kincaid, and the couple has four grown children and one grandson. His brother, Douglas, was the longtime coach at Amarillo Palo Duro.

Andy McCollum

Linebackers

Austin Peay, 1981 Fifth year at Baylor

Andy McCollum is back for his fifth season at Baylor and will handle the Bear linebackers this year. In 1995, with McCollum serving as defensive coordinator, the Bears ranked No. 5 nationally in total defense, No. 5 in pass defense, No. 9 in scoring defense and No. 12 in rushing defense.

McCollum originally joined the Baylor staff in 1993 as linebackers coach and immediately enhanced his reputation as an outstanding recruiter, top-flight tactician and very personable young coach. In the spring of 1995, he left for the University of Tennessee to serve as linebacker coach but returned seven weeks later to take over the role of assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

Andy McCollum with his wife, Gwen, and their son, Drew, and daughter, Andrea

In 1994 alone, McCollum coached consensus All-Southwest Conference linebacker LaCurtis Jones and headed up Baylor's special teams efforts - deemed by many to be the best they had ever seen in Waco.

While standing out as a coordinator and position coach, McCollum has continued to sign some of the best high school talent in Texas year after year. He came to Baylor from UTEP, where he spent three years (1990-92) as special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach. The 38-year-old McCollum began his coaching career at Middle Tennessee State in 1981 as a graduate assistant. He spent the 1982-88 seasons as a full-time coach at MTSU, handling the defensive secondary.

In 1985 Middle Tennessee was ranked No. 1 nationally in Division I-AA. In '88 McCollum's secondary led the nation in pass defense and set three NCAA records. At UTEP he coached receivers in 1990 before taking over the special teams and linebackers in 1991. McCollum is a 1977 graduate of Marietta (Georgia) High School where he earned all-state honors as a quarterback. He was also voted North Georgia Athlete of the Year his senior season.

He played college ball at Austin Peay and was a member of an Ohio Valley Conference championship team his freshman season as an offensive guard. He later moved to tight end. He earned a B.S. in physical education at Austin Peay in 1981 and an M.S. in the same discipline at Middle Tennessee State in 1982.

He has coached six All-Americans, 22 all-conference picks and 16 players who have moved to the NFL. McCollum is married to the former Gwen Wilkinson. The couple has one son, Drew, and a daughter, Andrea.

HONORS/AWARDS

Coaches

Ty Smith

Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Ends

Western Carolina, 1980 First year at Baylor

Former Purdue defensive coordinator Ty Smith is the man Coach Dave Roberts brought on board to tutor the Bear defensive ends.

Smith, 40, has 18 years experience as a college assistant and is beginning his seventh as a coordinator. He coached linebackers at Purdue in 1995 and

'96 and had the added duties of defensive coordinator a year and a half. His Boilermaker teams were known for their aggressive, blitzing style of play.

The year before he arrived, Purdue ranked next to last nationally in defense and while he was there they were ranked in the top 40 nationally.

From 1988-94 Smith coached linebackers and defensive ends at Louisville. He held the title of defensive coordinator there his last four years. In five of his seven seasons the Cardinals were ranked among the nation's top 30 defenses.

That success came after Louisville ranked last nationally in defense before Smith's arrival.

Eight of Smith's Cardinal players advanced to the NFL, including two first-round draft choices. Louisville won two bowl games, beating Alabama in the Fiesta Bowl after the 1990 season (10-1-1 record, ranked 12th nationally) and defeating Michigan State in the Liberty Bowl after the 1993 campaign (9-3, ranked 19th nationally). From 1982-87 he coached linebackers at Florida. With the Gators he tutored Wilbur Marshall, who won national defensive player of the year honors, and five All-Americans and three NFL first-round draft choices.

Smith began his coaching career at Western Carolina, handling linebackers from 1979-81. The native of Sylvia, N.C., was a four-year starter and all-conference middle guard at WCU from 1974-78. He earned a B.S. in physical education and a master's in 1980. Smith and his wife, Dorla, have one daughter, Deidre, eight.

Trooper Taylor *Wide Receivers*Baylor, 1991 Fourth year at Baylor

Trooper Taylor, one of the most popular players in recent Baylor history, is in his fourth year on the Baylor staff. This season he will handle the Bear wide receivers.

Taylor was elevated to full-time status for the spring of 1994 after spending two years as a graduate assistant. During his first season, he coached the Bear wide receivers. The last two he worked with the BU secondary.

Trooper Taylor with his wife, Evi, and son, Blaise

Taylor, after finishing his Baylor playing career in 1992, held the school record for career kickoff returns with 53 and career return yardage with 1,063. In addition to returning kicks, Taylor had a solid career as a defensive back for the Bears.

Taylor came to Baylor as a highly-recruited all-around performer at Cuero. He was named all-state on both offense and defense in one of the most successful high school programs in Texas schoolboy history. In the four years Taylor played for Cuero, the Gobblers went 55-6.

Three years they reached the state finals, winning it all in 1987. Taylor played in the Texas High School Coaches Association All-Star Game after his senior year. Taylor lettered at Baylor in 1988, '89, '90 and '92. He missed the 1991 season with a serious knee injury but overcame long odds to return.

He is well remembered for making a last-minute game-saving tackle in Baylor's 1992 win over Texas. The victory, Grant Teaff's last in regular season play, put the Bears in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl.

Taylor graduated from Baylor in 1992 with a B.S. in education. He earned an M.S. Ed. from Baylor earlier this year. One of 16 children, Taylor's family boasts an incredible array of college athletes.

Taylor married Evi Crosby, a former Baylor women's track team member in 1993. The ceremony, which took place on the floor of Floyd Casey Stadium, included former Baylor All-Americans James Francis and Santana Dotson.

The couple has one son, Blaise, born last year.

Assistant Coaches

Joe Wickline
Offensive Line
Florida, 1983
First year at Baylor

Joe Wickline comes to Baylor from Southwest Mississippi Community College where he was recently hired as head coach. During the 1995 and '96 seasons he was the offensive line coach at Pearl River Community College in Mississippi.

Joe Wickline with his wife Nicki, and son, Kelby

From 1988-94 Wickline was the offensive line coach at the University of Mississippi. While he was there, the Rebels played in the 1989 and 1992 Liberty Bowls and the 1990 Gator Bowl. From 1984-1988 he was the offensive coordinator and line coach at Delta State.

He spent one season as a graduate assistant at Tennessee and three at Florida, all working with offensive linemen. Wickline played at Florida, earning All-SEC recognition two years. He played in the 1989 Tangerine Bowl and the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. He earned a B.S. at Florida in 1983.

Wickline is married to the former Nicki Sturdivant and has two children, a daughter, Lacey, 11, and a son, Kelby, 2.

Keith Gunn

Graduate Assistant

Keith Gunn is in his second year on the Baylor staff. He came to the Bears from Texas A&M.

Gunn played high school football at Hurst L.D. Bell. He won all-district, all-county and all-area honors as a quarter-back and defensive back before enrolling at Abilene Christian.

At ACU, Gunn started four years at strong safety (1988-92) and won academic all-conference honors. He graduated in 1992 with a bachelor's in political science. From ACU, he went to A&M as a graduate assistant. He spent the 1992 season working as a video restricted earnings coach on defense. In those capacities, he broke down opponents' defensive and offensive tapes and prepared scouting reports.

From 1994-95, Gunn worked as a defensive graduate assistant at A&M. He helped in the areas of scouting, video breakdown and self scouting while helping coach the safeties.

Gunn earned an M.E. in agricultural education at A&M and also began work on a Ph.D. in educational administration. The 26-year-old is married to the former Martha Kate Stallings, daughter of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings.

Brian Murphy Graduate Assistant

Brian Murphy is in his first year at Baylor University after coming from the University of Wisconsin. Murphy, 27, came to Baylor in the spring and will work with the defense for the Bears.

He is a 1992 graduate of Lehigh with a degree in international relations. He earned a master's degree in education and administration from Wisconsin in 1997.

Murphy played defensive end and was a four-year letterman at Lehigh. He served as captain of the team as a senior. He played high school ball at Chicago's Fenwick High and also captained that team as a senior.

He began his coaching career at Illinois Benedictine in 1992, serving one year as defensive line coach. He then moved on to Wisconsin in 1993, starting out as the director of on-campus recruiting before becoming recruiting coordinator. Murphy then spent one year at Wisconsin as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line, followed by two seasons with the defensive line.

Jerry Pickle

Director of Football Operations

Jerry Pickle is in his 14th year on the Baylor staff and first year as director of football operations. He joined the Baylor staff as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1987.

Pickle coordinates the recruiting efforts for all Baylor athletic teams and handles administrative duties, particularly as they relate to student services.

In 1996, Pickle was honored as one of Baylor's employees of the year.

Pickle first came to Baylor in June 1984 as a graduate assistant football coach. He served in that capacity two years before becoming an administrative aid in the athletic department. Pickle has a B.S. and M.S. in health, physical education and recreation from Delta State University in Mississippi.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner, and the couple has two sons, Matthew, 11, and Jonathan, eight.

Robb Rogers

Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

In his fifth year at Baylor is Robb Rogers, the Bears' head strength and conditioning coach.

Rogers came to Baylor from the University of Southern California, where he spent four years as the Trojans' head strength and conditioning coach.

Before his tenure at USC, the 38-year-old Rogers was an assistant at Missouri for seven seasons (1982-88), where he received his masters of science in human performance/sport psychology in 1987.

Rogers has been a member of the National Strength Coaches Association since 1982 and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist and a Level I coach in the United States Weightlifting Federation. He was named national strength coach of the year in 1996 and was named Southwest Conference coach of the year in 1995.

Rogers attended Southwest Missouri State University and served as a student strength and conditioning coach for two years (1981-82). He received a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1982. Rogers prepped at Houston (Mo.) High School, where he starred in football, track and baseball.

Mike Sims

Director of Sports Medicine

Mike Sims is in his 17th year as a Baylor athletic department staff member. After serving as an assistant trainer three years, he became Baylor's head trainer in October 1984, and was named director of sports medicine in 1993.

Sims was born on Aug. 1, 1957, in Cedar Hill. He served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill and graduated in 1975. He spent five years as a Baylor student trainer. He graduated from Baylor with a B.S. in 1980 and earned a master's degree in 1982. In August 1981, Sims joined the BU athletic staff as Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer. He has held a number of offices in both SWATA and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association Ethics Committee and a board of directors member for the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment. He also served as president of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association in 1991-92.

Mike married the former Suzanne Stevens, a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983. The Sims have two children: a daughter, Jessica, seven; and a son, Keith, five.

Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. President and Chief Executive Officer

Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr., who has an impressive history as a teacher, minister, administrator and scholar, became President and Chief Executive Officer of Baylor University on June 1, 1995.

He replaced Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds, who retired after 14 years as the university's president to become Baylor University Chancellor. Dr. Sloan is the 12th president in the 152-year history of Baylor University.

Born in Coleman, Texas, in 1949, Dr. Sloan was reared in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated from Cooper High School in 1967. He attended Baylor from 1967 to 1970 and was a member of the baseball team his freshman year. He graduated ahead of his class, earning a bachelor of arts degree cum laude in 1970. He was a member of Alpha Chi National Honor Society and the Honors Program, graduating "With Distinction."

He then attended Princeton Theological Seminary, where he earned the master of divinity degree magna cum laude in 1973. He conducted post-baccalaureate research in church history at the University of Bristol, England, from 1973-74 and earned the Doktor der Theologie degree insigni cum laude from the University of Basel, Switzerland, in 1978.

Dr. Sloan joined the faculty of Baylor's Department of Religion in 1983 after holding teaching positions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth and at Hardin-Simmons

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds
Chancellor

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds is in his third year as Baylor chancellor after serving as the eleventh president of Baylor University from 1981-95.

From 1946 to 1952, and after entering the Air Force in 1948, Dr. Reynolds earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Trinity University. During the next four years, while serving in Air Force leadership positions in both the United States and the Far East, he completed professional studies at the University of Denver and the Air University. In 1956, he became an Assistant Professor and Teaching Fellow at Baylor and during the next five years continued his academic pursuits by earning the Doctor of Philosophy degree in experimental and clinical psychology at Baylor.

Dr. Reynolds was scheduled to join the faculty of the Air Force Academy in 1961, but he was diverted to the Aeromedical Research Laboratory at Alamogordo, New Mexico, where he became Director of Research. For the next six years he led this highly diverse and complex laboratory in unique research activities associated with the United States space program, specifically the Project Mercury, Gemini and Apollo NASA endeavors. In the midst of producing some fifty publications and maintaining flying status as an Aviation Psychologist, Dr. Reynolds also served as an adjunct graduate faculty member of both Baylor and the University of New Mexico. During his last year of Air Force duty, he was the establishing Commander of the Air Force Human Resources Research Laboratories.

Dr. David M. GuinnFaculty Athletic Representative

Baylor School of Law professor David M. Guinn serves as Baylor's faculty representative to the Big XII Conference and the NCAA. He is also an ex-officio member of Baylor's athletic council. University in Abilene. In 1990 he became the first holder of the George W. Truett Chair in Evangelism at Baylor, and in 1993 he was appointed founding dean of the George W. Truett Theological Seminary. Baylor regents in February 1995 named Dr. Sloan as the 12th president of the University.

Dr. Sloan has held positions as pastor or interim pastor of more than 20 churches in Texas, Oklahoma, New Jersey, and in Germany. He has authored two books, assisted with editing of several books, and published more than 50 articles and chapters for scholarly or ecumenical journals and publications.

He has held several civic positions in the Waco area, including service in the Lorena (Texas) Downtown Merchants Association and as school board president of the Lorena Independent School District. Recently, Sloan was selected for induction in the Little League Hall of Excellence, along with Baltimore Orioles shortstop Cal Ripken, Jr.

Throughout his career, Dr. Sloan has remained a staunch supporter of Baylor's athletic teams. An avid fan who enjoys attending games, he has taken a strong stand for the Bears through his support of the Athletic Department and the Waco Chamber of Commerce's Big 12 Task Force.

Sloan is married to the former Sue Collier of Cisco, Texas, also a 1970 graduate of Baylor. They are members of the First Baptist Church of Waco. The Sloans have seven children: Charissa (a Baylor graduate and graduate student), Bryan (a Baylor junior), Eraina (a Baylor sophomore), Michael, Alathea, Sophia and Paul.

In 1968, at age 38, he retired from the Air Force, having completed twenty years active duty with five decorations for meritorious service and seven other decorations/awards. The next year he returned to Baylor University as Executive Vice President and on June 1, 1981, was named president of Texas' oldest institution of higher learning.

From 1981 to 1995 more than $180 million in additional facilities were added at Baylor, endowment was quadrupled and the total net assets of the University were tripled. In 1986, Dr. Reynolds was named one of America's one hundred most effective chief executive officers in a study funded by the Exxon Education Foundation of the 3,400 presidents of American colleges and universities.

Dr. Reynolds is past chair of the 850-presidential member National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities and chair of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas.

In addition, he is a deacon and former deacon chairman of the First Baptist Church of Waco, a 33rd degree Mason, a member of some 40 honor professional societies, and is a licensed psychologist. He is listed in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the South and Southwest, Who's Who in Science and in Who's Who in Education. He has been named a Distinguished Alumnus of both Baylor and Trinity University. He also holds honorary Doctor of Science (Sc.D.) degrees from both Seinan Gakuin University in Japan and the Baylor College of Dentistry.

Dr. Reynolds and his wife, Joy, have two sons and a daughter, two daughters-in-law, a son-in-law, and five grandchildren.

Guinn, a member of the 18-member NCAA Management Council, grew up in Cleburne and graduated from high school there before entering Baylor in 1957. He finished his J.D. at Baylor in 1963 and completed work on his LL.M. at the University of Michigan in 1966.

He has been a member of the School of Law's faculty since that time and currently holds the R. W. and Louise Morrison Chair of Constitutional Law. He was named Master Teacher in 1993.

Tom Stanton
Athletic Director

Now in his second year as director of athletics is Tom Stanton, a former Bear basketball standout and business leader whose enthusiasm, vision and leadership skills are preparing Baylor to hold a strong position in America's premier conference.

named Stanton Baylor athletic director Feb. 23, 1996.

The 47-year-old Stanton came to Baylor in July of 1995 as the director of athletic marketing and promotions following a 22-year career with Word Inc., an international Christian communications company.

Stanton held several positions at Word, among them director of telemarketing, vice president for marketing, vice president for operations, senior vice president for operations, executive vice president for finance and operations, and executive vice president for operations, direct marketing and international export.

Word Inc. was acquired by Thomas Nelson Inc. in 1992, and in 1993 Stanton was named president of Nelson/Word Direct and Texas Operations. Stanton was responsible for three major divisions of the company.

Stanton holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business from Baylor. He lettered three years in basketball and two in baseball. He finished his basketball career at Baylor in 1972 with 954 points. He won the team's Hustle Award three consecutive years, and as a junior he was second on the team in scoring behind all-America William Chatmon.

Upon completing his playing career, Stanton served as a graduate assistant coach on the Baylor basketball staff.

Jim Trego Associate Athletic Director Operations/Men's Sports

Jim Trego joined the Baylor athletic department as the university's first assistant athletic director for administration and coordinator of men's sports in 1993. He was promoted to his current position of associate athletic director in September of 1994 and handles a large portion of the day-to-day operations of the athletic department and serves as supervisor of men's sports.

Trego received his bachelor's degree from South Dakota State in 1975. He was an all-conference cross country and track athlete for the Jackrabbits. Trego went on to earn a master's degree from Northern Colorado in 1981.

Trego came to Baylor in 1993 after serving as assistant commissioner of the Western Athletic Conference in Littleton, Colo.

David TaylorAssociate Athletic Director
Business Manager

David Taylor, a Baylor graduate and certified public accountant, began his second stint with the Baylor athletic department last year in the position of associate athletic director/business manager.

Taylor handles all budgetary matters concerning the department while overseeing the ticket office operations and working with other administrative duties.

Taylor first came to Baylor in 1966 from Pampa and was a ticket office employee while a student, starting his career under former athletic director Jack Patterson. He finished his BA in 1972 and served as

"Tom Stanton fits the profile of the new generation of athletic directors," said Dr. Sloan. "His extensive background in business, including marketing, licensing agreements and contract negotiations, along with his abilities related to personal and corporate sponsorships, make him a great fit for Baylor as we move into the Big XII and the 21st century."

Said former Baylor athletic director Bill Menefee, Stanton's basketball coach at Baylor, "Tom is a natural leader. He always played the game hard, whether in practice or a game. And he had a real knack for making everybody around him better.

"When we picked sides for a scrimmage, the team Tom was on always won. We could change just one player, switching Tom to the other team, and the other team would win."

Since coming to Baylor, Stanton has been instrumental in helping the university establish all-time football attendance records with an average of 40,542 per game in 1995 and 11,848 season tickets sold last year. Also, Baylor in '95 set records for the largest home opener crowd ever (42,327 for Oregon State) after setting the record for the largest crowd in school history (51,218 for Texas A&M) the previous season.

While football attendance is on the rise, booster support is increasing as well. Last year the Bear Foundation reached an all-time high in terms of both memberships and donations.

In addition to his work at Baylor, Stanton has been heavily involved in the Big XII Task Force, a group of several hundred community and civic leaders who are ensuring a smooth and successful transition for Baylor and Waco in the Big XII Conference.

Stanton and his wife, Kathleen, also a Baylor graduate, have two sons, Clinton and Ryan.

While at the Western Athletic Conference, Trego handled business operations and was the liaison with the coordinator of men's basket-ball officials. Trego's main duties at the WAC included directing the conference's men's postseason basketball tournament each spring.

Prior to his stint at the WAC, Trego worked at the U.S. Air Force Academy for 12 years in a variety of athletic administration positions.

In addition to being assistant A.D. for business affairs, Trego was director of athletic administration and assistant athletic director for event management and facilities at the Academy. He was also the Academy's head cross country and assistant track and field coach.

Trego retired from the military as a major with many years of involvement in the Academy's athletic program. Trego's Air Force career began in 1976 when he was an instructional technologist at Vandenberg AFB, California, and a missile operations launch officer at Ellsworth AFB, South Dakota.

Trego and his wife, Tammy, are the parents a daughter, Bayley Anne, born on July 12, 1996.

Patterson's administrative assistant until May of 1974. He received his CPA certificate that year and entered private business in Waco.

In 1975, the position of assistant athletic director was created, and Taylor returned to the athletic department on a full-time basis. He served in a variety of business-related and administrative capacities, rising to the position of associate athletic director under AD Bill Menefee in 1981.

In 1985, Taylor left Baylor to go into private business. He remained there until current athletic director Tom Stanton brought him back to once again head the department's business operations in 1996.

Taylor and his wife, Brenda, also a Baylor graduate, have two daughters, Khaki and Kristen, a Baylor student.

Jeanne Nowlin Assistant Athletic Director for Women's Sports

Jeanne Nowlin will complete her first decade with Baylor athletics this academic year in her current role of assistant athletic director.

In that capacity, Nowlin monitors and supports the Baylor women's sports of soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball, tennis and golf. She is Baylor's liaison for women's athletics to the Big XII Conference and the NCAA as BU's senior women's administrator.

Nowlin has been responsible for organizing and developing the Baylor Women's Athletic Cabinet, which is a network of volunteers who promote women's athletics at Baylor. She is also directly involved in organizing and promoting fundraising events for women's athletics, such as golf and tennis tournaments, walk-a-thons and basketball and volleyball tournaments.

The 51-year-old Vernon native is a 1968 graduate of Baylor. While attending Baylor, she played on the Lady Bear basketball team and ran track.

After receiving her degree in education, she took her first teaching job in Dallas, where she taught math, health and physical education at the elementary level. During her stint in public schools, she also coached numerous sports, including football, boys' and girls' basketball, softball and track.

She went to Richardson to teach physical education and eventually worked her way into an administrative role. During that time, she wrote the district's physical education curriculum while evaluating coaches and P.E. teachers.

During her time away from the university, Nowlin was very involved on a volunteer basis in raising money for Baylor athletics and capital campaigns such as the North End Zone Building, which now housed Baylor's athletic administration. She also served on the board of directors for the Dallas Bear Club.

Nowlin brought her talents to Baylor full time in August of 1988 as associate executive vice president of the Bear Club. In 1992, she began serving double duty after adding the title of coordinator of women's sports and becoming the liaison for women's sports to the Southwest Conference. She was promoted to her current title of assistant athletic director in 1994.

Nowlin holds a master's of education from the University of North Texas (1973). She later earned her supervision certificate from North Texas in 1985. Nowlin is also certified in the field of special education.

Clyde Hart
Associate Athletic Director
Head Track & Field Coach

Clyde Hart, who is in his 34th year with Baylor athletics, holds the dual title of associate athletic director for internal affairs and head track coach.

A former state champion high school sprinter in Arkansas, Hart set a Baylor record in the 100 and ran on an SWC champion 440-relay team that equalled the world record. He was also a member of BU's 880-relay team that won college track's "Triple Crown," the Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays.

He began his coaching career at Little Rock Central where he won five straight cross country and track state championships. Before coming to Baylor in 1963, Hart had coached Central runners to virtually every state record in Arkansas.

The Bears have finished as high as third in the NCAA championships three times (1985 indoor and outdoor and 1990 outdoor). In 1989, '90 and '91, the Bears were ranked by Track and Field News as the top collegiate relay team in America, based on statistical rankings of all relays.

Hart has coached 83 athletes to win all-America honors 278 times. His relay teams have set American, collegiate, conference and junior world records at a variety of distances.

Hart is well known for his tutoring of 400-meter runners. Included in his list of stellar pupils are eight-time all-America Mark Collins, former SWC record holder Zeke Jefferson, 10-time all-America Johnny Thomas and NCAA champions Willie Caldwell, Raymond Pierre, Michael Johnson and Deon Minor.

Hart's 1,600-meter relay teams have won eight NCAA titles since 1985 and reached the NCAA finals 21 of the last 23 years. They have also won the Texas Relays eight of the last 11.

In 1985, Hart was recognized by the Texas Sports Writers
Association as the state's Senior College Spring Coach of the Year.
The NCAA Track Coaches Association named Hart their 1989 national indoor coach of the year, and he is that group's past president. Last year, Hart swept conference, regional and national coach of the year honors. He was also named the USOC national track coach of the year.

Hart and his wife, Maxine, also a Baylor graduate and professor in BU's Hankamer School of Business, have two grown sons, Greg and Scott, and two grandchildren.

Jim Huey Assistant Vice President & Executive Director, Athletic Development

Veteran fundraiser Jim Huey serves a vital function in the Baylor athletic department as assistant vice president and executive director, athletic development.

In that capacity, Huey acts as a liaison from the athletic department to the Office of University Development (Baylor's chief fundraising department) and the Alumni Association while maintaining an overall fundraising business plan for the athletic department.

Huey is a 47-year-old native of Bisbee, Ariz., where he was a four-sport letterman. He earned all-state honors as a tight end in football and was a member of state championship baseball and track teams. He was a walk-on football player at Baylor and graduated in 1972 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

After graduating, Huey spent 10 years in the insurance marketing business before going to work at Baylor in 1983 as development officer for South Texas.

He came to the athletic department after spending 13 years in the Office of University Relations. He most recently served as assistant vice president for field development and executive director of the Baylor/Waco Foundation.

The Baylor/Waco Foundation has been responsible for funding a number of major athletic facility projects, including the paving of the Ferrell Center parking lots, the lighting of Ferrell Field and the installation of Baylor's new track surface.

Huey also headed the development campaigns to build the Ferrell Center and Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Complex at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Huey and his wife, Susan, also a Baylor graduate, have two children, Trent, a Baylor student, and Natalie.

David Hawkins Executive Director, Bear Foundation

David Hawkins was named executive director of the Baylor Bear Foundation on Sept. 1, 1993. Hawkins joined the Bear Foundation after working in private business in Houston.

Hawkins worked for Baylor University as Baylor's assistant vice president for development from 1965 until 1984, where he headed fundraising efforts for the university's development office in Houston.

Dr Darryl Lehnus Director of Athletic Marketing

Darryl Lehnus, Baylor's director of athletic marketing, joined the BU staff on Jan. 1, 1986. Lehnus heads all of Baylor's athletic marketing efforts as he directs advertising sales for game programs, game sponsorship, season ticket campaigns and general athletic department promotions.

With an increase in the size of his staff in recent years, Lehnus now focuses more of his efforts on generating corporate and national advertising revenues for the Baylor athletic department.

Lehnus brings to the position a strong background in all levels of athletics, in a variety of positions. His dedication and willingness to

Paul Bradshaw Assistant Athletic Director

Paul Bradshaw, a Baylor graduate with an extensive background in athletic compliance, is beginning his second year back at his alma mater as assistant athletic director for compliance.

Bradshaw came to Baylor from the Southland Conference, where he was associate commissioner. At the Southland, he supervised compliance issues and oversaw competition in men's basketball, baseball, men's golf, cross country and track and

Tom Hill Assistant Athletic Director Special Projects

Tom Hill, in his ninth year at Baylor, brings a variety of experience to his position as assistant athletic director and assistant track and field coach.

Hill, who has served as Baylor's compliance coordinator, was charged with a new direction as he was appointed to the position of assistant athletic director this fall.

His recent administrative efforts have been focused on the supervision of the track and field capital improvement project. He also handled the task of serving as the meet director for the inaugural Big XII outdoor track and field championships.

In addition to his administrative duties on the Baylor athletic staff, Hill assists in the coaching of both Baylor men's and women's middle distance runners.

Hawkins was chiefly responsible for estate planning for individuals and presentations of proposals to foundations and corporations. He worked very closely with the Baylor Trustees and donors in the Houston and South Texas areas.

In 1984, Hawkins accepted a job as chief financial officer for TPT/Med Rehab, Inc., a company that was a vital part of Houston's medical industry. In September of 1993, he returned to Baylor as Executive Director of its Bear Foundation.

Hawkins earned his bachelor's degree from Baylor in 1961. While at Baylor, Hawkins lettered as a track and field athlete. Hawkins is a native of Waco and a graduate of Waco High School. He and his wife, Sherry, have two children, Boyd and Holly and five grandchildren.

try new ideas have given Baylor one of the most successful marketing programs in the country.

Lehnus received his B.A. from Anderson University (Indiana) in 1967 and M.A.E. from Wayne State (Nebraska) in 1968. He completed his Ed. D. at Baylor in 1993.

He began his coaching career at Grant Park High School in 1968. He served as athletic director, head basketball coach and head baseball coach for two years.

From 1978-84, Lehnus served as the University of North Dakota's assistant basketball coach. He came to Baylor in 1984 as an assistant basketball coach and served in that capacity one year before becoming coordinator of marketing.

Lehnus is married to the former Wanda Harvey. The couple has three daughters and one grandchild.

field. He also coordinated several conference championships.

Bradshaw worked at the SLC from 1994 until he came to Baylor in November of 1996. Prior to that, he worked as compliance coordinator at Southwest Texas State. In that capacity, he worked in the areas of rules interpretations, financial aid and athletic eligibility.

A Texarkana, Texas, native, Bradshaw graduated from Baylor in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned a juris doctorate at Baylor in 1988 and in 1992 completed a master's of education in sports administration at the University of Texas in Austin.

During his career, Bradshaw, a member of the Texas Bar Association, has been an associate attorney at law firms in San Antonio and Tyler.

Hill, 30, came to Baylor in 1988 as a graduate assistant track coach. While working on his master's degree in education, Hill was able to begin working with the Baylor track program.

A native of St. Marys, W.V., Hill graduated from Cedarville College in Ohio with a B.A. degree in math. Hill was a four-year letterman in both track and cross country, running all distances from the 1,500 meters to the 10,000 meters.

After Cedarville, Hill worked at his alma mater as assistant cross country coach. He finished his master's degree in sports administration at Baylor in 1989.

An active member of Athletes in Action, Hill has led several European track and field trips with AIA. Serving as European project coordinator for AIA, Hill has directed several activities at the national championships.

He is married to the former Kristin Mulliner and the couple has one child, Calvin, who is one year old.

Individually, member schools have long been respected for successes both in its classrooms and its stadiums. In all, league institutions have received numerous accolades for the quality of academic resources, programs and services offered to students. Athletically, Big XII teams have accounted for more than 30 NCAA team championships and 15 wire service football titles, while its studentathletes have claimed more than 750 NCAA crowns entering the 1997-98 academic year. The formation of the Big XII represents an undertaking by school chief executive officers to combine resources to achieve even higher levels of performance heading into the 21st century.

Steven J. Hatchell became the conference's first commissioner on March 26, 1995, and has been in no small part responsible for the immediate success of the nation's newest conference.

Institution chancellors and presidents serve as the chief policy makers of the conference, operating as the Council of Chief Executive Officers. Administration of the league occurs through the faculty athletics representatives, athletic directors and senior woman administrators.

In all, the Big XII is home to more than 1,500 student-athletes on 209 teams in the 21 men's and women's Big XII-sponsored sports. Men's programs regulated by the league include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track, swimming, tennis and wrestling. Big XII-regulated women's programs include basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track, outdoor track, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

BAYLOR 24, LOUISIANA TECH 16

Sept. 7 • Shreveport, La. • Independence Stadium (29,469)

Baylor struck early and rode it out from there in a 24-16 win over Louisiana Tech in Shreveport, La.

The Bears came out with a new look, moving with the pass and taking a 14-0 lead in the first quarter on Jeff Watson touchdown passes of 30 yards to Dexter Ford and nine to Kalief Muhammad. Jerod Douglas and the BU running game were unable to break out until the third quarter, when Douglas got loose for a 51-yard touchdown scamper down the right side of the field.

Douglas finished with 92 yards on 18 carries and the one score. Watson was 19 of 31 with an interception, two TDs and 169 yards through the air.

The Baylor defense may have been the difference in the game, holding Tech out of the end zone in the first half, despite the Bulldogs having a first-and-goal at the two late in the first half. Tech settled for a 20-yard Marty Kent field goal for its only first-half points.

Although Jason Martin passed for 324 yards, the Baylor defense held Tech to 68 yards on the ground and kept the Bulldogs between the 20s most of the night.

After Baylor went up 21-3 on Douglas' run, the Tech defense stiffened, while the Tech passing game clicked.

A 10-yard scoring pass from Jason Martin to Bulldog Dean Jackson and two more field goals from Kent cut the margin to 21-16 with 5:37 remaining, but Baylor marched down the field, and with 1:07 to play, Kyle Atteberry sent his first BU field goal through the uprights from 39 yards out.

Tech returned the kickoff to its 36, but on the next play from scrimmage, Bear Dean Jackson intercepted Martin at the 49, and Baylor ran out the clock from there.

BAYLOR 14, LOUISVILLE 13

Sept. 14 • Louisville, Ky. • Cardinal Stadium (38,756)

For the second straight week, Baylor hit paydirt early and fought from there in a 14-13 victory at Louisville.

The Bears improved to 2-0 on the young season. Kalief Muhammad and a stiff Bears defense were the story at Louisville, as Muhammad scored both touchdowns on passes from Jeff Watson.

The two first hooked up midway into the first quarter, when a scrambling Watson found Muhammad all alone behind the Cardinal secondary. Muhammad took in the pass and raced 87 yards to the end zone, the third longest pass reception in Baylor history.

The Bears' other points came on a five-yard pass from Watson to Muhammad on the other end of the field with time running out in the third quarter. It had been set up by a 32-yard completion from Watson to Dexter Ford. That gave BU a first down at the Cardinal 19, and three runs later, Muhammad connected with Watson.

Louisville kicker David Akers missed three field goal attempts on the day (including one from 65 yards which had the distance but was wide right), but it was his missed extra point after the Cards drew within one at 8:05 to play that made the difference.

Akers did his best to make up for it on a successful Cardinal onside kick, but the Baylor defense stiffened. Ty Atteberry had another good day, sending all but one of his kickoffs into the end zone and punting three times for a 51-yard average.

Turnovers would have been the story in a Baylor loss. The Bears put it on the ground six times, with Louiville recovering four of those. One Watson pass was intercepted when it rolled off the hands of intended receiver Shawn Washington.

BAYLOR 42, OREGON STATE 10

Sept. 21 • Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium (42,327)

Sparked by an early Oregon State miscue, Baylor scored first and then got rolling on the way to its 42-10 win over the Beavers.

After the Bears went backwards on their first two drives, an Anthony Taylor interception and 44-yard runback set them up at the Beaver 28. Four plays later, Kalief Muhammad took a reverse 18 yards and into the end zone for the 7-0 lead.

Baylor was never seriously threatened from there, despite being outgained 383-336. It was the big play that did it for the Bears, as Baylor ran only 54 plays to OSU's 77. OSU therefore dominated the time of possession, holding the ball 36:33.

After Muhammad started off the scoring on the reverse, Baylor scored on a 30-yard pass from Jeff Watson to Pearce Pegross, Jerod Douglas rushes of 32 and 47 yards, a 48-yard pass from Jermaine Alfred to Pegross and a 100-yard kickoff return by Muhammad, the longest in school history.

Douglas made his two trips to the end zone in a tremendous third quarter in which he took the -12 yards he had in the first half and turned them into 105 for the day, on only 11 carries, an average of 9.5 yards per rush.

Perhaps the most discouraging stat from Baylor's point of view was the 272 yards Oregon State rolled up on the ground. The Baylor defense did its job when necessary, however, as most of the Beavers' success was between the 20s.

On a day on which Baylor coach Chuck Reedy said "we tackled poorly," the BU defense was led by linebackers and defensive backs. Linebacker Robert Mason rang up a team-high 15 stops, nine unassisted, while free safety Nikia Codie had 12 total. Safety Rodney Artmore had nine, and linebackers Dean Jackson, Don Arroyo and Clarence Cruse added eight apiece.

TEXAS TECH 45, BAYLOR 24

Baylor

Oct. 5 • Lubbock, Texas • Jones Stadium (50,594)

Baylor ran into a steamroller in its conference opener at Lubbock, losing to Texas Tech 45-24.

The Red Raiders put up huge offensive numbers against the Bears, piling up 624 yards of total offense or 7.9 yards per play. Byron Hanspard rushed 35 times for 287 yards, the most ever against the Bears by a single back.

Tech showed its plans on its first drive, with Hanspard accounting for all 95 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown run.

Tech went up 17-0 before the Bears got on the board with a Kyle Atteberry field goal of 45 yards. But Baylor seemed to get back into the game with the half winding down on a nine-play, 80-yard drive that got the Bears within 17-10 two minutes before intermission.

Lightning struck quickly twice, though. With 19 seconds on the clock, Tech was at the Baylor 22. At eight seconds on the clock, the Raiders led 31-10.

In the interim, Zebbie Lethridge hit Field Scovell for a 22-yard touchdown pass, and Jody Brown caused BU quarterback Jermaine Alfred to fumble by hitting his arm, allowing Montae Reagor to pick up the ball and rumble 21 yards into the end zone.

Goodbye, new ballgame.

Baylor got within 14 in the early fourth quarter, 38-24, but 49 Hanspard yards later, Sammy Morris went 17 yards for a touchdown to put the game out of reach at 5:26 remaining.

NEBRASKA 49, BAYLOR 0

Oct. 12 • Lincoln, Neb. • Memorial Stadium (75,478)

Baylor ran into a superior Nebraska team in its second consecutive Big XII Conference road game, in Lincoln, Neb.

The Bears managed only 32 yards rushing and 85 yards through the air in a 49-0 loss to the Cornhuskers, who rolled up 669 yards of their own.

Playing without first-string quarterback Jeff Watson, Baylor saw starter Jermaine Alfred spend much of the day running from the heavy Nebraska rush and complete 10 of 20 passes. Usual starting tailback Jerod Douglas was also injured and carried only one time for a 12-yard loss.

Nebraska took its time to get going, leading only 7-0 after one quarter, but the Husker attack was unstopped from there, averaging 8.2 yards per play.

Baylor's best chance to get on the scoreboard went bad when Kyle Atteberry missed a 44-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter.

OKLAHOMA 28, BAYLOR 24

Oct. 19 • Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium (35,712)

Baylor led most of the way but eventually fell victim to its own mistakes in a 28-24 home loss to the Oklahoma Sooners.

Five Baylor turnovers proved to be the difference in the game as the Bears gave OU four fumbles to work with.

The first fumble killed a Baylor scoring drive 21 yards from the end zone just 11 ticks into the second quarter. The Bears did manage to score on a seven-yard pass to tight end Bradley Domel just a couple of drives later, and when added to a five-yard touchdown catch by Shawn Washington, the Bears took a 21-7 lead in the first half.

Baylor missed another opportunity for six late in the third quarter with a fumble at the Sooner 15-yard line.

But the Bear defense stiffened and forced OU to punt. However, Rodney Artmore fumbled the punt at the Baylor 12, and the Sooners went in from there, cutting the Bear lead to 24-21. Baylor fumbled early in the fourth quarter at its own 40 to set up OU's go-ahead score.

Quarterback Jermaine Alfred had another good performance for Baylor, completing 14 of 22 passes for 174 yards and three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Oklahoma upset one trend that had recently been in the Bears' favor as they beat a Baylor team which led at intermission. BU came in with an 18-game winning streak after leading at halftime, but for the first time in Chuck Reedy's tenure, Baylor lost a halftime lead. It was also the sixth win in six tries over the Bears for the Sooners.

BAYLOR 49, IOWA STATE 21

Oct. 26 • Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium (35,114)

t looked like deja vu all over again early as Baylor fell behind Iowa State 21-7, but 42 unanswered points did the trick and gave the Bears a 49-21 win for Homecoming.

It was three big plays that put the game out of reach in the second half. The first was a 68-yard pass from Jermaine Alfred to Pearce Pegross in the third quarter that gave the Bears a two-touchdown cushion. A 67-yard dash by Jerod Douglas followed on the first play of the fourth quarter, and freshman phenom Elijah Burkins closed out the scoring with a 24-yard burst up the middle all the way into the end zone.

Baylor's offense was in rare form against the Cyclones, rolling up 624 yards on 80 plays, an average of 7.4 yards a snap. It marked the first time since Sept. 21, 1991, (versus Missouri) that the Bears surpassed the 600-yard mark.

It was an outstanding day on the ground for BU, with the team netting 397 yards rushing. Not only did Douglas outgain Heisman candidate Troy Davis 154-138, Burkins outrushed Davis with 142 yards of his own on 21 carries. It was Baylor's first game with two backs over 100 yards since 1993 versus SMU.

It was the first and only conference win on the season for the Bears, and it broke a three-game losing streak.

TEXAS 28, BAYLOR 23

Nov. 2 • Austin, Texas • Memorial Stadium (75,482)

Texas jumped out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter and appeared ready to fashion a blowout, but Baylor put on a furious charge and made the Longhorns sweat it out to the final seconds and hold on for a 28-23 win.

UT built the early 21-0 lead with three long scoring pass plays before Dexter Ford, filling in for the injured Jerod Douglas, scored on a nine-yard run to cap an 81-yard BU drive. Ford ended up with 153 yards on 20 carries and two touchdowns for one of his best games.

It was 21-7 at the half, but BU kept rolling, thanks in part to a pair of blocked punts and a fumble recovery. First, Malcolm Hamilton blocked a punt to set up a 35-yard Kyle Atteberry field goal that cut the lead to 21-10.

BU linebacker Dean Jackson then recovered a fumble to set up Clifton Rubin's touchdown, making it 21-16 after the PAT failed. He also intercepted a Longhorn pass deep in Baylor territory to kill what appeared to be another touchdown drive for UT.

Texas scored on a long drive to up the lead to 28-16, but then Nikia Codie blocked another punt to set up a second touchdown by Ford.

The blocked kicks led to 10 points for the Bears.

Trailing 28-23, Baylor had two more drives, the last one ending on the Texas 35 with 1:41 to play. The Bears wound up paying for two missed first half field goals, 32- and 47-yarders by Atteberry.

TEXAS A&M 24, BAYLOR 7

Nov. 9 • Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium (45,112)

t was a tale of two halves for Baylor against Texas A&M at Floyd Casey Stadium, with the Bears dominating the first half but getting only a touchdown for a 7-0 lead before the Aggies turned their second-half domination into a 24-7 victory.

Baylor has now lost to Texas A&M six straight times and 10 of the last 11. The Bears also fell into the position of having to win out to have a chance at a bowl appearance, with five losses in their previous six outings.

Baylor's defense was tough in the first half, holding the Aggies to 113 yards on 35 plays. The A&M ground game managed only 50 yards on 21 carries in the first half.

It was that Aggie ground game that exploded in the second half, churning up 369 yards rushing for the day and 489 yards of total offense.

Big plays also came A&M's way, including a 95-yard touchdown run by D'Andre Hardeman for the game's final score when it looked like the Bears had a chance to stay in the game with a good defensive stand. It was the longest ever run for a touchdown against Baylor as well as the longest ever for a Texas A&M player.

Linebacker Dean Jackson played what was perhaps his best game ever with 16 tackles, including one for a loss.

MISSOURI 49, BAYLOR 42 (30T)

Nov. 16 • Waco, Texas • Floyd Casey Stadium (22,705)

Baylor waited until it seemed time had run out before staging a dramatic comeback which would have been the biggest in Floyd Casey Stadium history, only to fall 49-42 in three overtimes.

It was the first such overtime experience for the Bears under a new NCAA rule. Baylor and Missouri matched touchdowns in the first two overtime chances, but the Bears lost the ball on downs in overtime No. 3, and lost their 1996 bowl chances as well.

The other comeback of the game was for Jeff Watson, who came off the bench to spark the Bears to their comeback, along with Mark Cogdill, Baylor outfielder/backup quarterback turned receiver in the absence of the injured Pearce Pegross.

The Bears found themselves in a 28-0 hole after Missouri opened the second half with two quick touch-downs to build on its lead. Watson then took over for Jermaine Alfred, who had taken the spot after Watson suffered back spasms in game four (Texas Tech.)

Watson first found Kalief Muhammad with three minutes to play in the third to get the Bears on the board. A Missouri fumble led to Watson hitting Cogdill for his first career score from 15 yards out just two minutes later.

Baylor waited almost another whole quarter before drawing within seven on a 10-yard run by Elijah Burkins, and then Watson and Cogdill connected in the final seconds of regulation to send the game into overtime.

OKLAHOMA STATE 37, BAYLOR 17

Nov. 23 • Stillwater, Okla. • Lewis Stadium (21,000)

What looked like a promising start to the final game of the first season in the Big XII Conference turned out to be a long day for the Baylor Bears and particularly their defense in a 37-17 loss on the road at Oklahoma State.

For the second time on the season, an opposing running back broke the BU record for rushing yards by an individual opponent, as David Thompson ran 41 times for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

Baylor ended the season at 4-7 overall and 1-7 in the Big XII Conference.

Oklahoma State took the opening kickoff and marched to the Baylor 33, but a Tone Jones interception by Rodney Artmore ended the early threat. Instead, Baylor took over at its own 45 after a 21-yard return by Artmore. Baylor went in to score and took a 7-0 lead which held up through the first quarter.

The homestanding Cowboys scored on five of their next six possessions, however, and four of those scores were touchdowns as OSU put the game basically out of reach.

As for the Bears, after the opening drive, they went without a first down for the remainder of the half. In fact, it was Baylor's second drive of the second half before it could move the chains.

Starring for Baylor were two youngsters. Elijah Burkins continued to impress, carrying 14 times for 72 yards and a touchdown, while converted receiver Mark Cogdill led the team in receiving for the second game in a row, with five catches for 60 yards.

National Football Hall of Fame Enshrinees

HALL OF FAME

BARTON "BOTCHEY" KOCH

Botchey Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest limeman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

JIM RAY SMITH

Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and '54. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1987.

HALL OF FAME

LAWRENCE ELKINS

In an era when running the football was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bridgers pro-style attack. Elkins was a two-time consensus All-American (1963-64). In '63 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame 1993.

HALL OF FAME

BILL GLASS

Bill Glass was a consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He was voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass become one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

HALL OF FAME

MORLEY JENNINGS

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 82-60-6 from 1926-40. Nine of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-5-1. Among the great players he coached were Botchey Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

HALL OF FAME

MIKE SINGLETARY

Mike Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year, three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro 10 times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

BARTON "BOTCHEY" KOCH FIRST CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN FROM A TEXAS UNIVERSITY

he idea of a player of all-America status coming from anywhere except the east and west coasts seemed preposterous in 1930—until Botchey Koch came along.

Koch played guard at a stocky 5-10 and 200 pounds and left an indelible impression on everybody who saw him play.

Since no game films exist from his day, testimony of those who witnessed him personally attest to his greatness.

"He was the greatest athlete I ever coached," said former Baylor coach and athletic director Bill Henderson, a veteran of over 40 years in college athletics.

The legendary D. X. Bible put Koch on the West squad of the East-West Shrine Game. After seeing Koch play against the best in the country, Bible said, "He's the best guard I ever saw."

The San Francisco Chronicle's report of the game said, "There were a lot of great linemen in the game, but Koch was easily the best. A steam roller could not get over him." Koch was voted the game's MVP.

Former SWC football referee Pete Cawthon called him "an All-American all the way, both ways. Don't ever expect to see another one as good." Amos Alonzo Stagg called Koch "one of the great ones." "Football brilliance," said Knute Rockne, "He's far and away the best guard I ever saw play."

Paul Crume, longtime Dallas Morning News columnist, wrote upon Koch's death in 1964, "after reviewing my memories of Botchey Koch, I doubt that there ever was a better college lineman."

Koch is a member of the Baylor Hall of Fame, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Baylor All-Decade team of the 20s, the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Southwest Conference 50-year All-Star Team and the All-Time All-American team picked by Grantland Rice, perhaps the greatest sportswriter who ever lived and Harry Stuhldreher, one of Notre Dame's famed four horsemen and former head coach at Wisconsin.

Former Waco Tribune-Herald sports editor Jinx Tucker wrote, "He (Koch) has been accorded more national honor than any player a college or university in the state of Texas has produced and he is deserving of that honor for he is the greatest guard the Lone Star has ever seen and perhaps the greatest the nation has ever known."

THE BOBBY JONES AWARD

Prior to each Homecoming game, the Bobby Jones Award is presented to the senior player who provided the best leadership on and off the field during the week of preparation for the game.

Bobby Jones, the Baylor quarterback from 1954-56 who helped defeat Tennessee 13-7 in the 1957 Sugar Bowl, was killed in an automobile-train wreck while a member of the Tennessee coach staff.

The coaching staff votes on the recipient of this award which was established after Jones' death by his widow, Mrs. Joe McClain. The award is funded by Charles and Sandra L. Wallace.

George Sims recorded the game's first turnover when he intercepted a Deacon pass in their first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Wake Forest eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Pierce 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter, who had attempted only seven passes during the regular season, passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American quarterback Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two of the completions going to Riley. James Parker also hauled in a Burk aerial for 23 Baylor yards. James Parker led the Baylor rushing attack with 43 yards on eight carries.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 13-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over Baylor in Miami's Orange Bowl contest.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers' effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-1-1 Bears. Bear fullback Dick Parma scored the game's first touchdown from a yard out and the legendary C. O. Brocato added the PAT as Baylor led 7-0 in the first quarter.

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody's four-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team's leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd's Tech squad used Rodgers and Martin's last quarter heroics to take their comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor's second of the 1951 season, the first coming at the hands of TCU 20-7. Larry Isbell, who threw for 1,430 yards during the regular season, attempted 18 passes against Georgia Tech, completing eight for 93 yards. Parma was the contest's top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

All-American end Stanley Williams, who caught 37 regular season passes for six touchdowns, and Harold Riley each caught three Isbell passes. And defensive back Robert Reid, who established a school interception record with 11 regular season swipes, intercepted one pass from Tech quarterback Darrell Crawford.

hirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times they touched the football on their way to a 33-13 thrashing of Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Bear all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the Bear 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading yard gainer with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game and Bob James added a 43-yard scoring jaunt to give Auburn a 21-7 halftime edge.

Tiger quarterback Bobby Freeman gave his squad a 27-7 lead on a six-yard romp.

All-America halfback L. G. (Long Gone) Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the lead to 27-13 midway through the third quarter. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season behind Shofner and Allen Jones, finished his team's leading rusher against the Tigers with 69 yards. Freeman completed the scoring with a four-yard fourth quarter pass to end Jimmy Long. Hooper, an all-conference honoree, finished with nine completions in 15 attempts for 112 yards, with four of the aerials going to Smith. Dupre returned three Auburn kickoffs for 85 yards as the Bears finished 7-4 for the season. Shug Jordon was the winning Auburn coach while George Sauer saw his Bears go down to defeat.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee all-American halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for the 10-2 Bears of coach Sam Boyd. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontel in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, who completed better than 60 percent of his passes and punted for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6. After the Volunteers held Baylor on their first possession of the fourth quarter, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

The contest matched the Southeastern Conference champion Vols against Baylor, who suffered a 7-6 loss to Texas Christian and a 19-13 setback to Texas A&M during the regular season. Tennessee and coach Bowden Wyatt swept through a 10-game schedule in which they conquered five teams that participated in bowl games New Year's 1956. Only seven points separated Baylor from an unbeaten record. Baylor halfback Del Shofner, running behind an offensive line headed by all-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 yards rushing in 14 carries and also intercepted an Volunteer aerial. For his play, Shofner, who scored ten touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing for Baylor while Saage added 39 yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Morcontell. Peters added 54 yards in kickoff runbacks.

Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

On the Bears' first possession of the second quarter, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to all-American halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three for the the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half. Coach Ray Graves' squad extended their lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for the quick six points. Florida traveled 20 yards for their two scores while Baylor went 139 yards for the same results. Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Play threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, ending a 71-yard, nine-play drive. With 1:01 remianing, Ply, who threw for four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed aerials. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three yards for the score. However, the two-point try from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

Ply established a new Gator Bowl record with 13 completions and teamed with Goodwin (seven receptions) for five.

ight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the Polo Grounds.

Baylor recovered their first of five Utah fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 total yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 15 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak covering two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions. Utah State, who entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: all-American tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

Many observers felt the game's highlight came at halftime when the New York City Sanitation Department Band performed in a driving snowstorm. As a souvenir of their trip to New York City, members of both teams were given shoe shine kits.

he 5th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-American quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over Louisiana State.

Trull, voted the contest's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the game's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 80 plays to LSU's 39 and racking up 394 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, who ended the season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored their first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in ten plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, who lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by all-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in Penn State's 41-20 decision over Baylor in the 1975 Classic.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead with Steve Beaird's four-yard blast. Bubba Hicks added the PAT conversion with 44 seconds remaining in the opening quarter. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission. After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard blast, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 19 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hicks tried an onside kick only to watch Lion Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor juior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the games's most Outstanding Defensive Player. Defensive back Tom Turnipseede added 11 tackles for the Bears and also recovered a Donchez fumble.

Senior Phillip Kent, one of eight Baylor all-conference selections playing in the game, returned three Nittany Lion kickoffs for 58 yards. Thompson and tight end Sam Harper each caught three passes.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The win vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place on the Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all members of the top ten.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. They forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final ten points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards. Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl on their way to a 30-2 rout.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth place in the nation during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, who closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety made the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC champion runner Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by the Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

Baylor, following the New Year's Day defeat, dropped to 14th place in the final football poll.

Wklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 21 seconds left in the half.

Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked out by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve quarterback Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:14 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 showing on the OSU 45.

Hancock led Baylor defensively with 14 tackles while Paul Mergenhagen added 10.

Anderson was selected Baylor's MVP after rushing for 103 yards on 21 carries. McNeil's 163 yards receiving tied the individual bowl record set 20 years earlier by another Bear-James Ingram aylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-92), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 yards total offense on nine snaps.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return. That play, a Liberty Bowl record, came with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and turned out to be LSU's only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 29-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7. In addition to Carlson, Simpson was named Baylor's Outstanding Offensive Player on the strength of his three catches for 117 yards, including a 59-yarder which helped set up a Syler field goal. Cornerback Ron Francis, who had an interception, fumble recovery and six tackles was named Baylor's Outstanding Defensive Player.

aylor's defense, led by Most Valuable Player Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffaloes to only 194 total net yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses. With the win Baylor finished the season 9-3 and ranked as the Southwest Conference's highest team in the national polls. Sports Illustrated listed the Bears in the No. 8 spot while the Associated Press ranked BU No. 12 and the United Press International No. 13.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defensive squad. They managed only one field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offsides penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight play was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch. Quarterback Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot form Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

The rest of the way it was just a matter of letting the defense do its thing while younger players got valuable experience. Carlson saw no action in the fourth quarter because of a bruised shoulder.

In addition to scoring twice McAdoo led Bear rushers with 36 yards. Jeffrey Murray was right behind with 35. Carlson completed 11 of 22 passes for 136 yards and Clark was the biggest recipient. He caught three for 58 yards.

aylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III in Tucson, AZ.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished the game with 106 yards and the Most Valuable Player Award. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the endzone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set a pattern for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup while down by only 10 at the half. But the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at the half. The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with Baylor having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the endzone after he and quarter-back J.J. Joe never quite made connections on a handoff.

With another opportunity gone, Baylor could do little the rest of the game. The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march went 60 yards on 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category, but not to the extent which the final score would indicate. They rushed for 147 yards, compared to Baylor's 138. They passed for 176 yards while BU had 131. The time of possession chart favored Indiana 32:55 to 27:05. The real story for Baylor seemed to be lost opportunities and mental lapses which Indiana did a fine job of exploiting. Le'Shai Maston was one of a few bright spots for Baylor as he had 13 tackles from his linebacker spot. Cornerback Frankie Smith added nine tackles and had 53 yards on five punt returns. The Bears finished the season 8-4.

BAYLOR - 20

DDearance:

ARIZONA - 15

The Grant Teaff era of Baylor football concluded in grand style as Baylor used big plays both offensively and defensively to hold off Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, out-gained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had touchdown passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and held UA to field goals twice. UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after the Bear defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malauulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. As the first half was coming to a close Baylor struck paydirt with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 remaining.

UA came back very quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal. It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when QB J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. It was a simple out-route on which Bonner broke a tackle and sprinted down the sideline for the score. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a battle of defenses. The highlight of the day came when Arizona moved the ball down to the Baylor eight only to be stopped on the one after four attempts. Robbie Birleson and Le'Shai Maston were credited with the final three tackles. Baylor managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety. The BU defense held twice again late, stopping drives on their own 22 and 28. The final stand came with time running out and Malauulu passing into the endzone. While the Bears' offense was limited by one of the nation's best defenses and a steady rain, it did what it took with the big plays and field goals. Meanwhile, the BU defense gave up some yards, but not many points. Maston was brilliant as he led all tacklers with 11, five unassisted. Defensive tackle Scotty Lewis and defensive back Michael McFarland had 10 stops each and linebacker Shawn Cravens and safety Chris Lewis added seven.

he second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a tight 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until 30 remained to play.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only touch-down. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as xxx Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding Washington State on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed the Cougars to retain possession.

Key plays along the way included a 32-yard pass from Chad Davis to Albert Kennedy that set up Hicks' score. Davis completed seven of seven passes on the initial march.

Both defenses buckled down to dominate the rest of the way. WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and it played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the Cougar 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke field goal which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. Washington State ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0. The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikie Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. The Bears mixed the run and pass well as Bradford Lewis bolted up the middle for 12 and Jeff Watson hit Ben Bronson on a 13-yard completion.Baylor made a bold bid to win the game in the fourth stanza. With 3:57 left the Bears got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 second left Watson's pass into the endzone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

The Baylor Experience

Baylor University was chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas and is Texas' oldest institution of higher education. It is controlled by an all-Baptist Board of Regents and is operated within the Christian-oriented aims and ideals of Baptists. It is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. Its mission is to be an institution of higher learning where education may be gained under Christian influences and ideals.

Baylor University assumes responsibilities traditionally associated with institutions of higher education: dissemination of knowledge, transmission of culture, search for new knowledge, and application of knowledge. The University strives to stimulate students to think clearly and creatively; to develop in students spiritual sensitivity and a sense of Christian commitment to moral discrimination and action; to develop in students a sense of civic virtue and responsibility; to foster in students an appreciation of the role of the arts, sciences, and humanities in the development of culture; and to prepare students to use their knowledge in productive careers.

As a Baptist institution, Baylor University is founded on the preeminence of Jesus Christ and the belief that God the creator and sustainer of the universe has purposely revealed Himself to humanity and, through a process of divine inspiration, caused the Holy Scriptures to be written.

Baylor University is concerned with the spiritual, moral, and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, faculties, administrators, and regents—a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. This university is proud of its Christian heritage, and it strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and by the search for truth as it plays out its unique role in the educational community.

The mission of Baylor University is pursued within the framework of a program which emphasizes the liberal arts component of a high quality undergraduate education, but which also includes significant graduate and professional programs. In addition to the College of Arts and Sciences, Baylor University is comprised of the schools of business, education, engineering and computer science, law, music, and nursing, the George W. Truett Theological Seminary, and allied graduate programs in San Antonio. In all of these programs, Baylor University expresses its commitment to Christ by encouraging its students to become informed, responsible, creative, and articulate citizens. Baylor University strives to produce individuals who use their freedom to enrich their own lives and to contribute to the well-being of society.

Baylor is concerned with the total development of each student - the spiritual, the physical,
the social, the cultural,
and the academic. In addition to the classroom, a wide range of activities is designed to help the student

Baylor Athletes Graduate

Baylor knows that athletics are just a part of the entire educational process. A process which uses many parts to make a complete person on the field and in the classroom. A person that can be an asset to himself and others after the college experience is completed and a degree is earned.

The fact that Baylor University graduates its student-athletes at one of the highest rates on a conference and national level is no accident.

All Baylor student-athletes are required to meet NCAA regulations concerning their academic standing. Baylor prides itself on providing student-athletes with full-time staff members to assist in academic placement and planning through the student retention office.

In order to provide student-athletes additional support, the office provides academic support counselors and supervised study halls. These study halls are offered to all students who are advised in the office.

Tutors working in the study hall are primarily graduate students and are available whenever student-athletes need additional help. The results are that Baylor student-athletes graduate. And that gets noticed.

Each year, the College Football Association recognizes universities with football graduation rates of 70 percent or better, and Baylor is becoming a regular on that list. This year, Baylor was one of 16 schools so honored, and the only such member of the Big XII Conference.

The student to faculty ratio at Baylor is 18 to 1, with an average class size of around 30.

Smaller classes give students the opportunity to learn on a personal basis with professors and allow them the recognition they deserve as a valued part of the classroom experience.

Faculty members teach 96 percent of all classes, with only four percent led by graduate or teaching assistants.

Baylor was one of 16 schools in the nation to post a graduation rate of 70 percent or better in 1996 for football student-athletes.

Baylor football graduation rates are consistently above the national average.

The Templeton
Foundation named
Baylor as one of the nation's top characterbuilding universities.

Superior Academic Programs

Baylor undergraduates may choose among an exciting array of courses offered by the College of Arts and Sciences, the Hankamer School of Business, the School of Education, the School of Music, the School of Nursing and Institutes and Special Studies. In addition, Baylor offers post-baccalaureate study through the Law School, the Graduate School and the George W. Truett Theological Seminary. The wide range of diverse educational departments and programs at Baylor allows students as many degree programs to choose from as offered at public universities, a selection not available at most other private institutions.

- •Baylor offers 146 baccalaureate programs, 75 master's programs, and 15 doctoral programs, providing the flexibility to sample and explore one's interests and map out challenging career paths. Moreover, the accessibility of preferred programs at Baylor is matched by the accessibility of knowledgeable professors on a one-to-one basis.
- •Baylor is a nationally acclaimed teaching institution. The objective to expose students to great scholars is as old as the university itself. Over 96 percent of all classes are taught by Baylor faculty, not teaching assistants. The availability of professors is underscored in Baylor's policy that all faculty members keep generous office hours. Throughout all of the disciplines, an "open door" policy is the prevailing trend.
- •With over 600 full-time faculty and a student/faculty ratio of 18:1, Baylor is able to maintain small classes averaging 30 students. While some introductory courses are larger, most classes beginning with the freshman year give students an opportunity to learn on a personal basis with professors and allow them the recognition they deserve as a valued part of the classroom experience.

Strength and Conditioning

Baylor's strength and conditioning program is led by veteran coach Robb Rogers, the 1996
National Strength Coach of the Year, and his staff, and is one of the top collegiate programs in the nation.

Strength fitness, power fitness, cardiovascular fitness and speed fitness are the foundations upon which the tools of sport are built.

Baylor offers the best of personnel and equipment in its Sports Medicine program. Director of Sports Medicine Mike Sims, M.S., has been at Baylor since 1981. He is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Sims is aided by three full-time staffers, Jerry Pate, Becky Spurlock and David Chandler, all licensed trainers, as well as some 30 student trainers.

The Baylor training room can handle 20 athletes at a time for taping.

There is a physician's examination room equipped with an x-ray machine.

The best rehabilitation and therapeutic equipment is located in the training room, as well.

Baylor Track and Football: A Winning Combination

Is he a football player who competes in track or a track man who plays football? That's an often-asked question at Baylor because the Bear football and track programs have a long history of cooperation.

Throughout the years, men competing both ways have contributed greatly to Baylor's nationally-recognized track program.

The 1997 Baylor football roster includes the names of five track lettermen. Current Bear football players Clifton Rubin (weight throws), Robert Neal III (sprints), Dexter Ford (sprints), Derrick Fletcher (weights) and Nikie Codie (long jump), have all lettered in track. Rubin, Neal, Ford and Codie all scored points in the 1997 Big XII Conference Championships.

Just last year Baylor finished 11th in the NCAA Championships as former Bear Michael Johnson continued to dominate the 200 and 400-meters.

A list of the nearly 100 former Bear greats who have competed in both sports includes:

- Reyna Thompson, high hurdle conference champion and all-American, NFL All-Pro football player.
- Johnny Thomas, eight-time track all-American and 12-year NFL veteran defensive back.
- Bruce Davis, conference 100-meter champion, junior world record holder (indoor 60), NFL wide receiver.
- Ricky Thompson, conference champion long jumper, seven-year NFL veteran.
- Gerald McNeil, all-America sprinter, NFL All-Pro kick returner.
- John Simpson, all-America sprinter, Liberty Bowl MVP wide receiver.
- Del Shofner, member of world record relay, NFL All-Pro footballer.
- Marvin Lewis, all-America shot putter (3rd in NCAA), nosetackle.
- Mike Robins, conference champion hurdler, starting defensive back.
- Darnell Chase, eight-time all-American, football wide receiver.
- Davy Duncan, all-America hurdler (2nd in NCAA), defensive back.

Many, many other men have used their talent in both sports. And since the Big XII Conference is the nation's best in both sports, Baylor is committed to having its football players compete in track...or is it track men play football?

Built on a Solid Foundation - Grant Teaff Built Baylor Football

The American Football Coaches Association is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. As the organization's executive director, Grant Teaff is the driving force of the AFCA.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after a highly successful 22-year stint as the head coach of the Baylor Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl – Teaff's last game as a head coach – he finished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games. He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 first-team all-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins, third-ranked coach for games in the SWC, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

Teaff coached 12 postseason all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. The other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure at Baylor. He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Major and Hayden Fry.

Teaff's Baylor teams played the likes of Alabama, Air Force, Arizona, Arizona State, Auburn, Brigham Young, Clemson, Colorado, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Miami, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Penn State, Pittsburgh and USC.

Upon completing his BU coaching career, he spent one year as the school's athletic director. Teaff took over the reins of the AFCA in 1993 and moved its headquarters to Waco.

The Baylor Belles

The Baylor Belles are a group of young women selected to represent Baylor University in various recruiting activities and to generate spirit for the football team. These young women are vital to the Baylor football program and to the whole recruiting process. Their primary duty is to serve as hostesses for football recruits and their families on home game days and during official visits to Waco. They spend countless hours promoting Baylor University and working to maintain its first-class reputation in academics and athletics.
